Medea

C&C Invades Drama Field

Theater '63, which is a channel of the C and C program, plans to present on March 6-8th the original Greek version of the tragic drama, Medea.

Directed by Mr. Arthur McDonald, the play relates the ancient myth of the barbarian princess coming to Greece as the war bride of Jason, who has met her when going in search of the Golden Fleece. Soon after the couple arrive in Greece, Jason (Preston Stone) rejects Medea (Anne Brong). The remainder of the play deals with her horror and reaction to his rejection.

To add emphasis to the play a chorus consisting of Dorothy McCory, Susan Dillingham, Anne Blumhort, Donnie Rankin, and Lucylle Crook will be used in the traditional Greek style of antiphonal response.

Medea will be open to the public free of charge. Those attending will be enlightened by the talents of the "kings" of Corinth and Athens played by Paul Grubbs and Gordon Cleveland. The other members of the cast include Bob Zeh as tutor, Lillian Phillips as nurse, and John Burch as a messenger.

Director McDonald has invited others who wish to work on costume or scenery committees to contact him personally.

The student body is urged to take advantage of the cultural opportunities offered by the school and to make every effort to attend the projects undertaken by the various departments.

Deputation Team Visits Area Schools

The St. Andrews Deputation Team has four trips planned for February and March. They will be visiting with church youth groups at Bessemer City, Lexington, Charlotte, and Laurinburg (the Friendship Church).

Jack Castle and Sue Pope will begin each program by leading in worship. Melinda Webster will introduce the subjects to be discussed and will tell of experiences she has had and of experiences of others that she hopes will be "eye-openers" to the pioneers and seniors.

"Temptations of High School and College Life," "The Role of God and Christianity on Campus," and "My Attitudes Have Changed Since High School," are some of the ideas that will be presented and discussed with the group. The Deputation Team is composed of Elaine Burton, Claude Andrews, Heath Rada, Paul Rose, Barbara Tweedy, Ronnie Snover, Mary Louise Robertson, and Dwight Langston.

The Lance needs persons to work in the area of sports. There will be several sports fields that will need to be covered simultaneously during the coming spring season. Interested persons are urged to contact Bill Campbell, Sports Editor, or the Editor in Chief.

String Quartet Next In Concert-Lectures

The Concert-Lecture Series will present The Alabama Quartet in an evening of chamber music at 8 p.m. in the L.A. Auditorium.

The Alabama Quartet is the Quartet-in-Residence at the University of Alabama. This group performs some forty performances each year, which include appearances throughout Alabama as well as several short tours of other states.

Emil Raab, the First Violinist was formerly a member of the Stanley Quartet of the University of Michigan. He is also the conductor of the University Symphony Orchestra. The Second violinist, Frank Spinosa, has been a member of the New Orleans and St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and last summer was "Visiting Artist in Music" at the University of Illinois.

The Violist, Henry Barrett, studied Chamber Music with the Juilliard Quartet and Orchestral Techniques with Anshel Brusilow. His summer activities have included performances with the Aspen Festival Orchestra.

Margaret Christy, Cellist, has recently completed studies with Pablo Casals. During the summer she teaches cello at the Transylvania Music Camp and serves as principal cellist of the Brevard Festival Orchestra.

The program for the evening will include the Quartet in A Major, Op. 54 No. 1

First String Quartet, Op 7 by Bartok

Quartet in C Sharp Minor Op. 131 by Beethoven

St. Andrews Represented At Greensboro College

Nanci Crowell, President of the Student Center Board, represented St. Andrews at the opening of the new Student Center at Greensboro College, Greensboro, North Carolina, on February 14.

The Greensboro College Student Government Association asked an outstanding leader from several North Carolina colleges to attend the ceremony.

According to St. Andrews' representative, Greensboro College through this meeting tried to insure better relations and more unity among North Carolina colleges.

SAP Professor On Washington Panel

The Rev. David A. McLean, professor of anthropology at St. Andrews, participated as a panel member in an African Affairs Seminar in Washington on February 15 to 17.

Organized around the theme of "Images and Realities of Emerging Africa," the seminar was staged for college faculty and students and is sponsored by the two major Presbyterian denominations.

MR. JOHN WILLIAMS

Faculty Recital Scheduled For Sunday, February 24

John E. Williams, Associate Professor of Organ, will give his faculty recital on Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Laurinburg. This will be the first recital given on the new three-manual Austin organ since its dedication in October. The organ was designed and dedicated by Dr. Harry Cooper of Meredith College.

Mr. Williams holds the Bachelor of Music degree from Oberlin College, Conservatory of Music degree from the University of Michigan. He has studied in England at the Royal School of Church Music on a Fulbright scholarship and on a Presbyterian Church U.S. scholarship he studied with Charles Letestu in Hamburg, Germany.

Professor Williams is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. His interest in dramatics while in college led to his acceptance into Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity.

In 1952 Mr. Williams was national finalist in the Young Organist Contest sponsored by the American Guild of Organists. Since then Mr. Williams has served in several capacities in the American Guild of Organists and has also served as music book reviewer for the Presbyterian survey.

During the Second World War Mr. Williams served in the Intelligence Division of SHAEF, headquarters of Major General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Mr. Williams was a recipient of the Bronze Star.

The program will include: Trumpet Tune and Bell Symphony by Purcell

The Musical Clocks by Haydn Prelude and Fugue in E Minor by Bach

Sonata on the Ninety-Fourth Psalm by Reubke

Variations on a Noel by Dupre

In memoriam, Skyland by Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Jr.

Thou Art the Rock by Mulet.

Mr. Williams has given recitals in eight states and in London, England.

Student Cabinet Sponsors Song Contest

The music subcommittee of the Student Cabinet is sponsoring a contest with the purpose of getting a school Alma Mater and "fight" song. All students, faculty, alumni, and friends of the college are eligible to enter. There will be a fifty dollar savings bond awarded to the winner of each song.

The committee is encouraging everyone to enter, whether he writes words, music, or both. The winning songs will be performed at an announced date.

A complete list of rules governing the contest can be found on bulletin boards throughout the campus.

St. Andrews, now in its second year of operation, has no school songs. Now is the chance for you, the student, to boost school spirit and tradition.

Summer Jobs Available

Summer jobs in Europe are now available to almost every college student. The American Student Information Service, known as ASIS, has more than 3000 summer jobs in their files awaiting applicants. In the past four years ASIS has successfully placed thousands of American college students in various summer jobs throughout 11 European countries.

Jobs are mostly unskilled and many do not require a knowledge of a foreign language. Monthly wages range from room and board in Spain to $150 for the highest paid positions in West Germany.

Jobs include factory work, resort work, construction work, farm work, hospital work, child care, camp counselling positions
