

From the S.A. Office

Welcome new and returning students! Your S. A. leaders have done everything in their power to welcome your arrival with varied and well-planned events. The Dorm and Student Center open houses, programs, dances, and many other activities have been planned by these student officers—SUPPORT THEM! We can promise you imaginative, ingenious, impressive plans for a "great year," but we cannot guarantee a "great year" without your individual and collective support. To save time, trouble, and trauma, decide now what you want: an active S. A. keenly sensitive to the needs and desires of the student body or a clique of dreamy-eyed, do-everything busybodies. IT'S YOUR CHOICE!

Start planning now for the big Homecoming Weekend November 15 and 16. We're breaking some two-year traditions for a fantastic fling into fall.

MANY THANKS

... TO THE Orientation Committee: Libby Linville and B. Murphy, co-chairman, and hard working members, Margie Rehm, Sara Jo Todd, Ernest Badgett, and Tommy Beason.

... to Charles Veitch and Mike Artman for a professional moving job. The Student Association Office is now located in the old LAMP AND SHIELD OFFICE across from the LANCE and the LAMP AND SHIELD is in the old S. A. office.

... to Residence Directors, Interdorm Council, and its President, Shaw Caddell, for efficient dorm management during the week of arrivals. Congratulations to Pat Autrey, new President of Concord Dorm.

... to the Pep Club and Coach Hackney who have placed the trophy case and the St. Andrews Knight in the S. C.

... to the summer handbook committee for a splendid job on specifics!—Dr. Hester, Miss Blanton, Dr. Fulcher, Dr. Bennett, Dr. Rogers, Mr. Folmsbee, Mr. Hiott, Libby Linville, Leppy Evans, Norwood Maddry, Col. Bullard, and Claude Andrews.

Carol Brooks, President Student Association.
