The PE department extends a welcome to all Freshmen and transfers. We hope to have a very active sports minded campus this year. This will be possible with your support.

Intramurals start next week, with the men playing touch football and the women playing volleyball. The girls will play as dorm teams, while the men will divide into five teams.

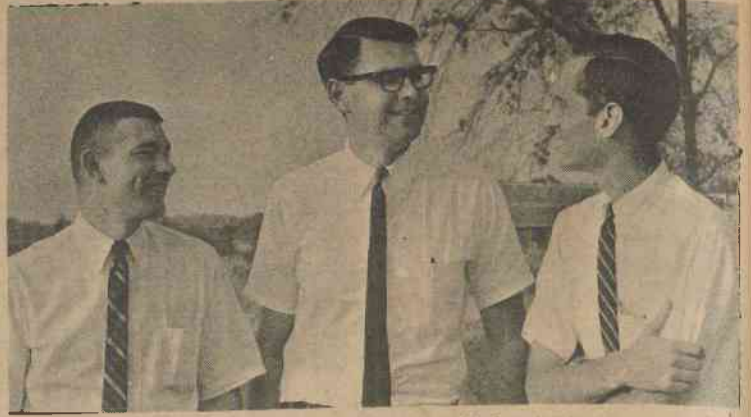

All men students are supposed to meet in the LA auditorium today (Friday) in order to elect team captains and acting presidents.

Please stay off the track. It is not yet complete, but should be finished within the next month.

A man student is need as the Knight-school mascot. If you are interested contact Coach Hackney.

Prospective cheerleaders should contact last year's cheerleaders as to tryouts. We would like to see more men students try for cheerleading.

Mr. Choung Il Chee, new professor with the C&C teaching staff, will be helping organize a soccer team. Mr. Chee played soccer in both high school and college, and has had some coaching experience.
