INSIDE BASEBALL By: BILLY MILLER

The Knights are rounding out one of their greatest potential seasons, but it has failed to materalize. The Knights have lost eight of their games by one run and to date have compiled an eight-eleven record. The Dia. mond Men have made more than their share of erros in making three to five a game and this has resulted in many of their one run loses. Lack of constant con. centration and finesse appears to be the root of this fumbling trouble. The spirit of the team as a whole has not generated and this is certainly needed on a winning team.

Freshman J. O. Vickers, Kell Gay, Jeff Dunican, and Stuart Dodson have been the valuable players for the Knights—and this is a bright spot. Dunican and Gay are the two leading hitters for the Knights while Vickers and Dodson have held up the pitching duties in high fashion.

The Knights only lose Lee and Von Settlemyre and the dex. terous C. Little to graduation. If a catcher to replace Connie can be found, the Knights should take the roses home next year. Of course, they should have taken them home this year—to win the big men must come through and they are long over due.

Therefore, constant erroring, lack of big hitters, and spirit problems have ice watered the Knights of "65."
