

From The Sidelines

By Ed BUTTERWORTH

This past week St. Andrews had the honor of hosting nine other colleges representing the N.A.I.A. in their annual track tournament. Congratulations to to directors Coach Rufus Hacknet and Coach Spenser Boyd, and to the students who aided St. Andrews in making this tournament a success.

Our thanks goes to the dormitory members who participated in intramural softball. Statistics show that softball was the best represented intramural sport this season.

Intramurals this year have been a complete success. Let's keep up the good work next year.

The baseball team, finishing II and 13, set a new school record. Had the team scored a few chosen runs, the eight games that were lost by one run might well have been victories.

This weekend St. Andrews plays host to the N.A.I.A. tennis contenders. Best of luck to our top doubles team, Chaiken and Taylor.

Congratulations again to Toula Yeapanis, the only girl in the D.I.A.C. to letter two years running.

On May 8 our new baseball diamond and surrounding sports area (track and soccer field) were dedicated to the late Mr. J. W. Capp Clark, a North Carolinian who was prominent figure in baseball. Dr. A. C. Moore made the dedication which was accepted by Mrs. J. W. Capp Clark who runs the Clark Sporting Goods store in Fayetteville. Our facilities are now to be honored as "Clark Field."

The third floor of Winston-Salem, behind Larry Ludka's four first places, won the intramural track meet with 54 points. Not to be known as P. P., Kings Mountain piled together 39½ points to place second.

This year's LANCE sports department has done an excellent job in keeping sports a traditional part of St. Andrews non-academic life. With a FULL cooperation of all ATHELETIC SUPPORTERS, next year's sport's department can succeed in making the Lance an even bigger success.

Maroons Capture Tennis Tourney; Continue Streak

Who can stop the College of Charleston in Tennis? The College of Charleston won the tournament for the second year in a row and continued their winning streak which is now at twenty-nine! In the finals held here on May the 1st, Charleston took six of the final matches and won the tournament easily with a total accumulative score of 48 points.

The tournament was completely dominated by College of Charleston and St. Andrews as these two schools had a "showdown" in eight of the nine final matches held on Saturday, May 1st. College of Charleston won six finals and St. Andrews won three. St. Andrews was second in the tournament with 38 points. The finish of the other teams was as follows: Methodist 14 points, Charlotte 10 points, Carolina Wesleyan with 8 points, and Lynchburg with 2 points.

The run-down of the final matches are as follows:
SINGLES

- No. 1-Billy Silcox (C of C) over Bob Chaiken, 6-0, 6-0.
- No. 2-Susan Venning (C of C) over Vann Taylor, 6-1, 8-10, 6-3.
- No. 3-Larry Mullins (S.A.) over Tom Bold (C of C), 6-3, 6-3.

Mecklenburg Two Wins

The Animals of Mecklenburg, behind strong hitting and a tight infield, completed the 1965 season victoriously with a 9 to 1 record. Winning their first six games, the Animals suffered defeat only to Winston-Salem's second floor squad 5 to 1.

Starring for the Animals were pitchers Bill and Jim Moore, infielders Benny Brockwell, and Rick Young. Carrying a big stick were Mack Coble, Steve Pitt, and Brockwell.

Two games behind the Animals was the third floor of Winston-Salem with a 7 and 3 record. Bob Dunn was the regular moundsman for the Salem team. Backing him both offensively and defensively were Larry Ludka, Bryan Ferguson, Glenn Huggins, and Buddy Elmore.

Finishing the year with 6 and 4 record, the second floor of Mecklenburg was led in both pitching and hitting by day-student Bill McInnis. Outstanding players were Barry Synder, Manly Turner, and Buddy Walker.

Tied for fourth position were Kings Mountain, Orange, and the second floor of Winston-Salem dormitories with 3 and 7 records. Leading the team in hitting were Mike Austin and Frankie Ried and handling the glove were Steve Wainscott and Ed Butterworth.

Charles Curly was Orange's moundsman; Adger Smythe did the receiving. Ken Rankin was an outstanding infielder and Gerald Temple displayed a fine fielding hand in left field as well as swinging a big stick.

Headed by the fine pitching of Glenn Lee, the team failed to wield the offensive spark needed to win their ballgames. Buddy Almond and John Lowdermilk starred for Salem.

Sports

Knights Win Eleven

Congratulations to the Knights for their best season in the history of the college!! The Knights, with a squad composed of many freshmen, have done an excellent job in winning eleven out of twenty-four games this year. The Knights lost EIGHT games by only one run. The Knights finished with a .458 season.

On May 8, 1965, the Knights dedicated their new field with a fine victory over Carolina Wesleyan in thrilling eleven inning game by the score of 9 to 8.

Though the Knights had the game "on ice" going into the ninth inning, the Bishops came back to take a 8 to 7 lead. The Knights battled back and scored one run in the bottom of the inning to tie the game and send it into extra innings.

In the eleventh inning, the Knights sent up Kell Gay who was walked. Next, came Charlie Hughes, but Gay stole second to get into scoring position. Then with a three balls and no strike count, Charlie Hughes cracked a double to right center to score Gay and win the game. Gay had also smacked a home run in the sixth and scored the tying run in the ninth. The winning pitcher was Dave Sifford who now has a record of two wins and no losses.

Chaiken, No. 1, Serves

DOUBLES

- No. 1-Chaiken & Taylor over Silcox & Holst, 7-5, 6-3.
- No. 2-Mullins & Walker over Bold & Gaud, 3-6, 6-1, 7-5.
- No. 3-Venning & Bell over Brockwell & Starling, 6-2, 6-2.

The next tennis tournament to be held here will be the N.A.I.A. on May 14 and 15th with the winners going to Kansas City to the finals. This trip will be an all-expense paid one. St. Andrews has a good chance of sending representatives to the final matches in Kansas City.
