S.C.B. to Present Christmas Dance

St. Andrews students will certainly be walking in a "Winter Wonderland" on the eve of the annual Christmas dance, December the eleventh. Decorations of white pine trees and snow scenes will create a festive yuletide atmosphere and convey the "Winter Wonderland" theme. The hours of the dance, which will be held in the cafeteria, will be from 8:00 p.m. until 12:00 p.m. All underclass women attending the dance will have late permission until 12:00 p.m. for this special event. Attire for the dance will be suits and ties for the men and either long or short gowns for the girls. The price will be $2.50 per couple. "The State Continentals," an 11-piece orchestra from North Carolina State College, will provide an evening of entertaining music including bossa novas, cha-chas, and waltzes. All St. Andrews

St. Andrews Actors to Give 'The Chairs'

The Department of Drama is presenting a laboratory theatre production, Eugene Ionesco's "The Chairs," on January 14th and 15th. Performances will be at 8:00 and 9:15 p.m. Refreshments will be served between performances.

"The Chairs," one of Ionesco's contributions to the Theatre of the Absurd, deals with two old people as they try to summarize the meaninglessness of their lives. The play includes some exciting experiments with pantomime. Kay McClanahan is cast as the 94 year old woman, and Bob Bercaw as the 95 year old man. Louise McLeod is directing the play.

Also in January, the Department will produce a children's play, "The Princess and the Swineherd," which will be performed in elementary schools in Scotland County. A matinee Saturday, January 15, will be given in the liberal arts auditorium at 2 p.m. General admission is 25 cents.

ment will produce a children's play, "The Princess and the Swineherd," which will be performed in elementary schools in Scotland County. A matinee Saturday, January 15, will be given in the liberal arts auditorium at 2 p.m. General admission is 25 cents.

The cast of "The Princess and the Swineherd" includes Sherry Baldwin, Princess Rose; Walter Boyce, King Cheert; Larry Mathes, Prince; Dan Hendricks, Nimble; Louise McLeod, Miss Primm; Mary Hart Vivien; Helen Gregory, Lisette; and Bonnie Williams, Elsbeth. The play is directed by Yibbett Phillips.

Placement awards will be given in the divisions of boys' dorms and girls' dorms.

According to decorations chairman, Tony Leonard, "the extent of the decorations throughout each dorm will be left to the discretion of that dorm, though the extent and quantity will be determining factors. Judges will be asked to emphasize such things as arrangement, originality, unification, and quality."

The judges will also be asked to consider that the three student dormitories do not have the advantage of a courtyard.

Dormitory Decorations Will Be Judged In Award Competition

Christmas decoration competition reaches its peak on Monday, December 13, when a panel of six judges consider the dormitory themes.

Open House for the boys' dorms will be held from 4 until 7 p.m. with the judges in the dorms from 5 until 6 p.m. Girls dorms will hold Open House from 8 until 10 p.m. and the judging will be done from 8 until 9.
