Non-Profit Organization U. S. POSTAGE PAID Laurinburg, N. C. Permit Number S

VOL. 8. No. 8.

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, LAURINBURG, N. C.

Dance at "The Barn" Saturday Night

THURSDAY, OCT. 24, 1968

cafe act and continued the pursuit of right material and staging for their nightclub, college and one-nighter ap-

All Brooklyn, New York-

born, the quartet hasn't always been this strongly in accord.

Following their initial disc smashes they parted for two years in order to find the proper grooves; Anthony doing a single and the others continuing as The Imperials. But it was only upon regrouping did they actually find that "proper groove." It is this groove which is propelling them to cafe

stardom and achieving for them

the accolades of adult audiences

as well as satisfying their teen-

The group has made many outstanding TV and club ap-perances including spots on the

Ed Sullivan Show, Today Show,

Shindig, Murray the K Special,

Mike Douglas Show, "What's Happening, Baby?" and Hullaballoo and engagements at the Top Hat in Windsor, Canada

and the Hollywood Beach Hotel in Hollywood, Fla. February of 1967 finds them at the Holiday

House in Pittsburgh followed by a March engagement at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas. They have also been a smash hit at most of the major colleges and universities across the country.

pearances.

age fandom.

Citizens For Legal Action

A group of interested citizens met at the Laurinburg Motel yesterday afternoon to discuss the possibilities of staging a campaign to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages in Scotland,

"The Scotland County Citizens For Legal Action" committee was formed to probe into the feasibility of trying to legalize alcohol in Scotland County. Mr. J. C. Tyson, assistant postmaster, was elected to act as chairman and Mr. William Winn was elected to be the secretary of the committee, composed mainly of Laurinburg bsuinessmen.

Many alternatives were discussed and the committee decided o meet next Monday to adopt a petition for circulation in Scotland County. The contents of the petition will be announced next week, s the petition will be circulated on November 5, Election Day.

St.Andrews of Future Subject of "Time-Out-68"

"Time-Out-68" will take place Tuesday October 21 at Camp Monroe. The conference will last from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will focus on various attitudes of faculty and students towards the student's role in a college or university. All students and faculty are invited.

Following the general introduction, Dr. G. Tyler Miller Jr., professor of Chemistry will present a lecture asking "What Is The Purpose of St. Andrews As A Liberal Arts College?" Immediately following reaction remarks to Dr. Miller's presentation, Danny Beerman, IDC President, will discuss and probe the "Student Government's Role''. Bill Wilson, a Student for Democratic Society co-ordinator, will take the floor and speak on "What Are The So-Called Student Radicals' Views?" Todd Davis, a member of the Student Cabinet, will follow Wilson with a discussion "What Part Does Instituton "What Part Does Institu on on "What Part Does Institutional and Personal Racism Play?"

College Pastor Davenport will wind up the mornings lectures by speaking on "What About Outside Involvement As A College or a Student Body?" Discussion of what St. Andrews may be in the future will highlight the afternoon's docket.

On-Campus Interviews

St. Andrews Placement Coordinator, Mr. George Wells, has announced the following schedule of on-campus employment interviews. On November Aetna Life and Casualty Insurance Company will be here, followed by the Branch Bank and Trust Company on the 12th. Robert's Company will St. Andrews as a "Harvard' will involve discussions about teacher evaluation, academic welfare, course and library improvement and the raising of admission requirements.

St. Andrews as a "Berkeley" will ponder NSA as "structured action", SDS as "unstructured action", the meaning of student power, and the Student Constitutional powers.

The apparent concern for "fun and games", the status symbol of money, SA as a suitcase college and the "Inward Directed" student will be the topics for the discussion for St. Andrews as a "Country Club" which winds up the days activities.

Fall Fling Set As Imperials Top Bill

MARGARET OFFTERDINGER all their new image of an adult Anthony and the Imperials, the Showmen, the Impacts, and the Inmates highlight the docket for the St. Andrews Fall Fling Week-end, November 1-3, Opening the activities will be Anthony and the Imperials (formerly known as Little Anthony and the Imperials, but now he's grown up) in concert in the gymnasium. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m., on Friday. Ad-mission is $1.50 perperson or a student activity card.

For ballads, beat, rhythm and pop--to go along with their frenetic dancing ability and just the proper dash of light humor-there probably is no other young adult cafe act around today, which grew out of the hot rock era of the 1950's to match Anthony and The Imperials.

Successful since 1958 when as Little Anthony and The Imperials they rushed the record heights with their initial million-selling disc, "Tears On My Pillow", Anthony Gourdine, Ernest Wright, Clarence Col-lins and Samuel Strain, intelligently realizing the overall importance of presentation and performance , finally decided that they were in show business-for good.

To that end, in 1966 they dropped the adjective "Little" from their billing to project to

Other members of the con-

Their recent outstanding record hits include the current "It's Not The Same," and such previous singles as "Better Use Your Head", "Hurt", "Going Out Of My Head," "I Miss You So", "Hurt So Bad," "I'm On The Outside Looking In" and "Take Me Back". They record for United Artists Records, Anthony and The Imperials personnel is made up of Samuel Strain, who sings tenor, Ernest Wright, second tenor, Clarence Collins, baritone, and lead singer Anthony Gourdine.

A dance with the Showmen and the Impacts will follow the concert on Friday night. The dance, which will begin about 10:30, will be held in the Student Center, and admission is $1.00 per person or a student activity card.

Activities on Saturday night begin with a "homecoming" soccer game against Lynchburg College at 2:00 p.m.

The Inmates from Raleigh will entertain with a show and dance on Saturday night from 8-12. Admission is $2.00 per couple, and couples only, if bought in advance. Tickets are $3.00 a couple at the door and St. Andrews identification is required.

held at The Barn in Maxton.

(Translation: B.Y.O.L.) When

advance tickets are purchased,

College Union Meet Sparks Redefinition

By Ted McCormack SCB President

budget allotments for spring. On October 13, 1968, the Our whole union program lacks Association of College Unionsin many areas, some being the educational function of the International, Region 5 Conference met for its yearly asunion, small-time entertainsembly at Montreat-Andrewson ment, and our all-around ability sembly at Montreat-Anderson to reach a majority of stu-College in Montreat, N. C. In dents, faculty, and staff. addition to the five members A decision we made as a result of the conference was of the St. Andrews delegation there were delegates from 50 to join the North Carolina colleges and universities in coffee house circuit. By paying North Carolina, South Carolina, a fee to join, we are entitled Virginia, Tennessee, and Kentucky. The purpose for coming to Montreat was to discuss the problems, possibilities, and the futures of their respective college unions. This was carried out at both the formal and informal level in group discussions and regular meetings.

union activities ALONE, We into "big name" entertainment hope that in the very near future ($2,000 or more), and we have to decide to reexamine our these two things can come about, for it will help the problem of the St. Andrews Union a great deal

We will be trying the year to expand our activities: c reach a larger majority of he students, reduce our speiding on large, expensive entertil ment, and to redefine our role as a college union.

Newsletter

Offers New

Approach

Are you dreading becoming part of the Establishment after college? Does the idea of a nine-to-five job and a house in suburbia turn you off? Want to do something different with

Nominated For Glamour Test Eight girls have been nominated by the dorms for the

Seven Co-Eds

coveted Best-Dressed award. From Albemarle Dorm Jane Cline, a sophomore business major from Hickory, North Carolina and Diane Buckle, a senior from Richmond, Virginia, majoring in Elementary Education were nominated. Becky Suddreth and Molly Matthles from Concord Dorm. Becky is a senior majoring in Elementary Eduaction from Lenoir, N. C. Molly, a junior, is from Summit, New Jersey majoring in Art.

Wilmington Dorm has three nominees: Nancy Hammond, Martha Howe and Muffle Sprunt. Nancy is a junior from Tappahannock, Virginia, majoring in Elementary Education. Martha, a sophomore, and transfer from Salem College, is majoring in Art. Muffie, a Blue Ribbon Panel For Behavioral Sciences County, N. Y., who has been involved in all major plans St. Andrews will bring to of St. Andrews; Robert Lincks, Burlington Industries execufor a conference on the social and behavioral sciences. The conference, according to Dean R. F. Davidson, is designed to study the broad outline of interdisciplinary work in the two areas. Participants will give special attention to the possibility of St. Andrews' offering a major that would combine studies in economics, Similar conferences preceeded the introduction of the C&C program before the opening of St. Andrews and the program for natural sciences now being introduced.

Consultants who will take part in the four-day conference in November include Dr. Stephen K. Bailey, Dean of the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse Uni-the campus November 10-14 a blue ribbon panel of 11 educators and business leaders tive; Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, now University Dean for Special Projects at the University of Wisconsin and former president of North Carolina Agricultural and Technical College. ference will be Dr. Ormsbee W. Robinson, Program Director of University Relations for IBM; Dr. Calvin W. Taylor, professor business, and politics.

of psychology at the University of Utah with a national reputation for studies in creativity: and Dr. Louis Reed Tripp, Dean of the College of Business and Economics at Lehigh University.

Following a welcoming dinner and review of conference plans Sunday night, four participants will present position papers in the first business session of the conference on Monday interview students on the 9th with the Navy sailing in on December 4.

James Fabrics (a subdivision of Burlington Industries) will open up interviews in the new year with an appearance on campus February 5. Baxter Laboratories and IBM will follow on the 19 and 26 with the N. C. State Personnel Department winding interviews up on the 27th of February.

These are the only scheduled interviews. If five or more students request a specific company, industry, Mr. Wells will attempt to secure the interviews.

we heard reports about the coffee house circuit, the National Entertainment Conference (block booking), movie presentations, and the ACU games program.

Besides the main address given by the national head of ACU.

The St. Andrews Student Center Board came back from the conference with the rude awakening that our college union program is one of the weakest of any college represented at the conference. Schools smaller than we are have a more vital and far-reaching program for the WHOLE student body, and they accomplish it on a smaller budget than we have. We discovered that too much of our time, energy, and budget goes in the dorms for a week, and put on two shows a night; all for a reasonable price. This is especially attractive to small schools with limited resources and outside attractions. When we found out that Josh White, Jr. started out on the circuit, to "book" as many as 3 performers a semester for Far-rago. These entertainers are new to the business, but have talent and a good show, and just need to get some experience. After we choose who we want among those screened for us by the Bitter-End Club

in New York, the performers will come to St. Andrews, live we were sold on the idea. One final thing that we learned at the conference was that St. Andrews College Union cannot ever accomplish what it needs or wants to do without two very important things: a College Union Director, not a Decker, Overholser, or a Dove, but someone whose full-time job is to run our college union; and a seperate student fee for college your life, like organize mi-grants, educate voters, or otherwise rock the boat, and you don't know where to turn?

Take into your hot anti-Establishment hand "Vocations for Social Change." This monthly newsletter, available in the pastor's office, is crammed with offbeat ideas about what shall I do with myself and what effect can I have on my social order. Published in California by a non-profit organization, the magazine is dedicated to "encourage the formation of new jobs which implement values more humane than those our present structure rein-

(Continued to page 3)

freshman English major, is from Raleigh.

> Lyl MacLean, a sophomore from Lumberton, was nominated from Orange Dorm. THE LANCE'S nomination are Donna Ritchie, a freshman from Roanoke, Va., and Sue Hawkins, a senior from West Palm Beach, Fla.

The entire campus will choose one of these young ladies as St. Andrews entrant in Glamour Magazine's best-dressed competition. The vote will take place the first week in December.

versity; Dr. R. Louis Bright, now University Professor at Baylor University and formerly Associate Commissioner of Education in the U.S. Office of Education; Dr. J. Daniel Couger, Assistant Dean of the University of Colorado School of Business; Howard Holderness, Chairman of the Board of Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co., and a trustee of St. Andrews.

Other participants will be Ray A. Killian, Vice President for Personnel and Public Relations for Belk Stores, Inc.; Dr. Stanton Leggett, education consultant of Westchester morning. Dean Bailey will present a paper on "The Responsibility of the Liberal Arts College for Citizenship Education;" Dean Tripp, "Recent Developments in Business and Economics programs;" Dr. Taylor's paper will be on "Creativity and Higher Education" with Dr. Robinson's on "Business and the Liberal Arts."

Wilmington Party

Wilmington Dorm will sponsor a Halloween party for Peace Corps tutees and professor's children on Wednesday night.

directions to The Barn will be furnished. The dress is casual. Ted McCormack, president of the Student Center Board, comments, "We hope that the entire college community will participate in Fall Fling and really take a fall break. This week-end can not only relieve tension from studying, but can encourage flourishing relationships. We want everyone to have a good time and have a "really college week-end' if that is possible at St. Andrews!"

Science Marches On At SA By The Stumps

