

Booters Crush Wesleyan 9-0; Battle Voorhees Today

BY MIKE KEECH

The booters gained their sixth triumph of the season here Tuesday by ripping N. C. Wesleyan 9-0 in a conference game.

After a scoreless first quarter the Knight attack came to life with two second period goals. Forward Bob Welch broke the scoring ice taking a pass from ace wing Don Cooper right in front of the goal and kicking it by a Wesleyan fullback attempting a desperation save. Then in the closing minute of the half Cooper scored the Knights' second goal on a bounding shot to the extreme right corner of the Wesleyan nets.

The Knights continued their offensive exhibition in the third quarter with four additional goals. Welch and Cooper combined again for the victor's third goal of the contest early in the period. Then Knight high scorer Randy Wellford booted his seventh goal of the season after taking a corner kick from wing David Mills, giving the Knights a 4-0 advantage.

S. A.'s fifth goal proved to be a significant one at least for one Knight performer. Co-captain and veteran defensive standout, Al Thompson had never scored in a Knight uniform. Thompson ended the drought Tuesday by converting a penalty kick after Welch was tripped by a Wesleyan fullback. Forward John Dantel ended the third quarter scoring rifling a shot from several yards out past the Wesleyan goal tender, Mills was credited with his second assist of the day on a fine cross to the waiting Daniel.

The Knights also dominated fourth quarter action scoring three more times. Welch opened the final period offensive with his third goal of the game on an assist by Daniel.

Then it was rugged center halfback Chris Johnson's turn as he ripped the Knights' eighth goal into the right corner of the Wesleyan nets. Once again Cooper was responsible for the assist. Thompson, not satisfied with his first career goal, added number two late in the quarter and of course Mr. Assist-Cooper-set up the score for the 9-0 victory.

Coach Rufus Hackney used all his personnel in the contest as Knight fans got their first look at substitute goalie Mac Johnson and other freshman performers. Special recognition should go to Cooper with one goal, and four assists, Welch with three goals returning to his old form, and Dann Griffiths for another fine defensive performance at center fullback.

The Knights also were victorious in Lynchburg last Friday, bringing home a 3-1 decision in that crucial conference clash.

All the game's scoring occurred in the first half. Wellford got the Knights off to a 1-0 advantage as he headed in a Cooper corner kick early in the first quarter.

The Hornets tied the game on a first quarter penalty kick. The Knights again took the lead as Welch scored from twelve yards out on an assist by Thompson. The game's final goal belonged to Cooper in the second quarter as he headed in a high arcing pass from Mills giving the Knights a 3-1 lead, which remained unchanged throughout the scoreless second half.

It was a hard fought S. A. victory and perhaps the Knights finest game thus far. Today the booters entertain Voorhees from South Carolina in a previously unscheduled match.

The 1969 edition of the S. A. soccer team now 6-1 for the season. Bottom row l. to r.: Allgood, manager, Sewell, Welch, Freeman, Daniel, co-captain Thompson, Mills, co-captain Hannas, Newton, Douglass, Dufek, Webb, Van Pelt, Cooper, Johnson. The Women's Recreation Association has gotten off to a quick start this year with volleyball, tennis, paddle ball and field hockey.

Concord C continued Concord's domination of volleyball by compiling a 6-2 record and capturing the championship easily. Bettie Morris of Orange fought off a stiff challenge by Ammie Lee of Albemarle to win the tennis title. Paddle ball is still being played. A good response from the dorms has made this one of the better tournaments of the year for the women.

The field hockey championship will be determined next week as the dorms battle for first place. Concord will play Wilmington at 4:15 on Monday, October 27 and Granville will play Albemarle at 5:00 on the same day. The winners of these two games will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 4:30 to fight for the team title.
