

Tennis Team Improves; Doubles Play Key Factor

St. Andrews' tennis team showed some improvement despite losing 2 out of 4 matches during the past week. Along with the natural improvement which comes with practice and competitive experience, the Knights have received a big boost from their restructured doubles teams. Davis Miller is now teamed with Richey Robinson to play No. 1 doubles, while Paul Finger and Tom Ager fill the number two spot. This arrangement has proved much more successful than the previous teams, Miller-Finger and Robinson-Ager. In the new setup each player is closer to his partner's talent level, and the teams now function more smoothly and efficiently.

The Knights scored consecutive 8-1 victories Thursday and Friday as they finally displayed the form which had been expected of them. Thursday they downed Methodist here for their first home-court win of the season. Davis Miller's 5-7, 6-3, 6-1 loss to Vaughn, John was the only blemish as SA won the other matches easily. Miller played one of his best matches of the season despite losing to the highly touted John.

Equally as convincing was the 8-1 win at UNC-Wilmington Friday, in which all of the Knights' singles players won in straight sets. John Gillingham and Steve McAlister suffered a three-set back in No. 3 doubles. After a scheduled match with Lynchburg was rained out Saturday, the Knights were beaten 5-4 by arch-rival N.C. Wesleyan. Miller wore down Mike Filiettal 5-7, 6-0, 6-2, but SA could win only one other singles match. Mitch Mitchell did that by defeating Tom Gaynor 7-5, 6-1. The Knights also won the number one and two doubles events. The day's most impressive performance was turned in by Wesleyan's little Martin Saunders, who annihilated Richey Robinson 6-0, 6-0 in No. 2 singles.

Yesterday SA was beaten by a strong UNC-Charlotte team, 6-3. Mitch Mitchell was the only Knight to win in singles. The No. 1 and 2 doubles teams were again victorious.

DIAC Track Saturday; Lynchburg Favorite

Lynchburg and Christopher Newport rate as favorites in Saturday's conference track meet here. The defending champion Hornets lead entries in three track events and should be very strong in the field events. Christopher Newport, a new conference member this year, tops four track events.

Jerry Allen (CN), 10.1, and Lynchburg's defending champion Harold Breedlove, 10.2, should wage a hot battle in the 100. Breedlove ran 10.0 in last year's championship.

Breedlove also heads the 220, which he won last year. He has done 23.0 this season. Allen will again be a strong contender.

Other top individuals:
440 - Bill Hurley, L (51.0),
Audrey Jackson, CN (51.3),
Steve Koscsich, CN (52.2)
880 - Dirl Riddle CN (1:59.5),

Baseball Knights Win One; Depth, Errors Still Problems

Ace pitcher Riley Erwin twirled a masterful five hit shutout and ignited the winning rally as SA picked up its first win of the season, 2-0, over N.C. Wesleyan, in the first game of a doubleheader April 5 at SA. Wesleyan came back to take the nightcap 6-1. Erwin struck out five and walked none in his seven inning masterpiece. He was aided by the sparking defense of his usually erratic mates. The Knights played errorless ball and pulled off two double plays.

SA broke up a tight pitching duel with two runs in the bottom of the sixth. Erwin led off with a double over the center fielder's head. Two outs later, Tom Barker singled sharply to left, with Erwin stopping at third. Rex McGuinn, running for Barker, stole second and both runners scored as Bob Latshaw blooped a single to right center.

The Knights played well in the second game also. Erwin started and took the loss, giving up two runs in the second. The teams traded unearned runs before Wesleyan wrapped it up with three seventh inning runs off Ray Andrews. With two outs and the bases full, second baseman Max Sampson was later covering the bag on an attempted force play, allowing one run to score. A wide throw by shortstop im Haddix let in the other two runs. Andrews deserved a better fate, for he had pitched well over a five inning span.

Bob Latshaw pitched five excellent innings the next day against Wofford, and took a 5-3 lead into the sixth. Then the roof caved in, as SA pitchers Latshaw, Sampson and southpaw Bill Barnes gave up 13 runs in the final four innings, as Wofford won 16-6. SA had a good day hitting, knocking out 11 safeties, but its pitching and defense could not hold off the Terriers. Wofford managed only eight hits, but were given 11 walks and three hit batsmen by SA pitchers. In the field the Knights committed eight errors.

The Knights had gotten started right with three runs in the bottom of the first, two coming in on Latshaw's looping single. John Hendrickson, who had walked, scored in the second on Ray Andrew's booming triple to the 400-foot sign in center field. The Knights added an unearned run in the fourth, and scored for the final time in the sixth on Jim Lynch's RBI single.

Tuesday the Knights fell to Atlantic Christian, 10-2. Erwin started and was treated roughly by the visitors, who scored seven runs in Erwin's four innings. Max Sampson pitched brilliantly over the last five innings. The Blue scored twice in the seventh inning. Tom Barker was hit by a pitch, and went to second on Bill Barnes' infield single. A wild pitch advanced both runners. Rex McGuinn drove across a run with a groundout. The second run scored on an error.

Women's Tennis Begins With Win Over Pembroke

Led by a superb performance by Lee Morgan in the number one singles match, the SA women's tennis team coasted to an easy 7-2 win over Pembroke in the season's opener here Wednesday. Morgan used superb forehand placement to defeat Fayetteville city champion Ann Darby, 6-4, 6-3. The Knights won five of the six singles matches, losing only in the second slot as Scotland County's Marge Lathem beat Glenda Hames, 6-3, 6-4.

Other results:
Lynn VanderLip (SA) d. Dee Conn 6-0, 6-4.
Laurie Miller (SA) d. Carol Taylor 6-0, 6-4.
Beth Bransford (SA) d. Pam Simmons 6-0, 6-0.

Miller-Bransford (SA) d. Simmons-Blackman 9-0.

Golf Team Struggling; State Tourney Next Week

After splitting a pair of matches within the last week, the SA golfers are still well below the 500 mark. No one has played up to his capability consistently, but each golfer is working hard to improve his game as the team heads into tournament activity.

The Knights scrambled to a one stroke victory over Greensboro College at Scotch Meadows Country Club Friday. Dave Cox, who has been filling the number one position all season for SA, led the way with an 81. Toby Vosburgh shot an 82, Dixon Williams 87, Jon McKechnie 88 and John Givens 90 as the Knights won 428-429.

The weather, a season long problem for the Knights, kicked up again, this time in the form of wind, as the team lost at Pembroke, 412-437 Tuesday. Cox was again the medalist with an 85, followed by Vosburgh and Givens at 87, Williams 88, and Dave Bowie 90.

The Knights take a 3-9 record into the match at Campbell Friday. Monday they will travel to Charlotte for the two-day N.C. Collegiate Tourney.
