

THE LANCE

Paris Room

Senate, Cabinet OK Nominations

On Thursday, September 25, the cabinet met to make appointments to the various student and faculty student committees open to the student body. The positions were filled through self-nomination, as well as open student nomination, at the end of a two week filing period. Among the committees filled were Student Life, Educational Policy, Judicial Committee, and Campus Planning.

The members of Student Life this year will be freshman Steve Fox; sophomore Peg Kays; junior Sally Beaty; senior Marti Newbold, and member-at-large, Paul Miller. The Judicial Committee is made up of Robin Green, J.C. Clarke, Susan Mann, and Bill Mansfield of the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes respectively.

Student positions on the Committee on Educational Policy were filled by Betsy Coffee, Jacob Houge, and Melissa Tufts. Subcommittees of this committee were also filled by the following students:

Athletics and P.E.: Libby Floweree and Rowe Campbell; Audio-Visual: Warren Anderson (one position still open); Summer School: (Two positions, both still open):

Campus Planning: Terry Clark and Karen Hardison; Teacher Education: (Two open positions); Winter Term: Shoon Ledyard and Beth Lyon.

Other committees filled were Campus Planning and Space Utilization: Glen Kennedy and Lin Thompson; Publications: Lisa Tillson; Health Committee: Laura Drumheller, Robin Titterington, Mo Newton, Marti Newbold, Sandy Hart, Beth Buffington, and Newsom Simmons; and Special Events: Fred Leo, Bob Haley, and Annie Myers.

The Food Committee members are Newsom Simmons, and "Dr." Cyril Spann; the Graduation Committee is made up of Terry Clark, Karen Hardison, Steve Chasson, Marti Newbold, and Bill Wilmot, and the Faculty Executive Committee Subcommittee openings were filled by Sandy Hart, Karen Hardison, and Warren Anderson.

Two openings on the Library Committee remain open as well.

The Senate met on Monday night to consider the Cabinet recommendations and cleared them all with surprising speed. During the meeting, Mecklenburg Senator Steve Chasson urged the group to try to find education majors to serve on the Teacher Education Subcommittee of the EPC. "This is a vital committee in terms of its effect on education majors," he said.

Interested persons wishing to fill a vacancy, Student Association President Keith Gribble said, should contact either him or Acting Secretary Suzanne Hogg.

Marion Cannon Here Wednesday

Charlotte, N.C. poet Marion Cannon will be in residence next week as part of St. Andrews' 1975-76 Writers Program.

Ms. Cannon, who took up poetry rather late in life a few years ago, was an immediate success and has won a wide following in the Southeastern United States.

As part of her visit, Ms. Cannon will be Wednesday's Common Experience speaker. Her program will take place on that day at 11:30 p.m. in Avinger Auditorium.

Many St. Andrews community members will remember Ms. Cannon's appearance on campus last fall, a highly successful affair which culminated in the entire assembly removing themselves to the steps of the College Union to howl at the full moon.

Constitutional Amendment To Be Voted On

The first amendment to the new Student Association constitution has been posted in the Student Union for two weeks' review by the student body.

The amendment, proposed some three weeks ago by a Senate committee, seeks to clarify the relationship between Student Association officers and employees of Student Personnel Services.

The amendment was initially proposed to resolve a potential conflict of interest between Jacob Houge's serving as vice president of the College Christian Council and residence director of Mecklenburg Hall.

The section in question, section 9 of Article III now reads

(Continued on Page 2)

Guys 'n Dolls Opens Tomorrow Night

JOHN DODDS AND CHIP BLANKENSHIP rehearse an action scene in the Highland Players' first production of 1975-76, "Guys 'n Dolls." (Photo by Tony Ridings)

On October 3rd, the Highland Players will open their 1975-76 season with the "Musical Fable of Broadway," "Guys and Dolls". Based on the stories and characters of Damon Runyon with the book by Jo Swerling, "Guys and Dolls" is a love story centering around the actions of two couples: Nathan Detroit and Miss Adelaide, and Sky Masterson and Sarah Brown.

Nathan Detroit (Bill Allen) runs a crap game in New York City and with the help of Nicely Nicely Johnson (John Dodds) and Benny Southstreet (Chip Blankenship) draws customers from as far away as East Cicero, Illinois. Miss Adelaide (Vanessa Holdsworth) sings with her girls at the Hot Box Club. Nathan and Adelaide are going to be married someday. Lieutenant Branigan (Rob Ray) is the big, Irish cop always trying to catch up with Nathan's floating crap game and the mob of gangsters which Detroit persistently entertains.

Sarah Brown (Susan Russell) is in charge of the branch of the Save-a-Soul mission on West 49th Street. Her job is to save sinners and with the able help of her father Arvide Abernathy (David Miller) and the other members of the Mission Band she starts work on the gamblers, ladies of the evening and common riff-raff which frequent the streets of New York. Sky Masterson (Jim Bumgardner) is a gambler, but a high class one—he has something more important than money riding on his luck at the tables.

Under the direction of John

Carson and with the imaginative choreography of Helen Halsey, "Guys and Dolls" tells the story of New York in the 40's with its exaggerated slapstick comedy and its simple story of love. Carson is assisted on the set by Beth Rambo, and the show is produced by Art McDonald.

Music and lyrics for "Guys and Dolls" are by Frank Loesser and are directed by David Evans with Kathie DeVane as pianist.

Season tickets for the 1975-76 season of the Highland Players went on sale Wednesday, September 24 and cost $5.00. Tickets for individual plays are $1.50 and $2.00 for the musical.