Kegglers Struggle

The St. Andrews bowling team traveled to Charlotte Saturday morning with high hopes, only to be defeated at the hands of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte by the overwhelming score of 67-23. UNCC, last year's SIBC champions, managed to win first game of the match by a total of 12 pins 866 to 854 despite John Porter's 200, Mick Meisel's 188 and Mark Podhorecny's 180. It was the beginning and the end for the kegglers. In the second game of the five game match, the UNCC team got untracked, rolling a sparkling 983 set while SA could only duplicate their previous 854 series. The third game had some bright spots with sub Kim Johnson striking out in the tenth to finish with a 205 while "JP" finished with a 189 but again the kegglers failed to unleach any challenging assault on the admittedly "hot" UNCC team losing total pin fall 940 to 862. In the fourth game SA finally got untracked behind Porter's 203 and Meisel's 202 but the UNCC team did not let down and finished with a 928 compared to the Knights 914.

At the end of the four games the "Forty-niners" had built up a decisive lead and their coach pulled his five starters out enabling the kegglers to win their only game of the day by the sub-par score of 828 and 823 with Meisel rolling a 195.

In the Southern Intercollegiate Bowling Conference a specific point system is used to determine the winner of a dual match. When a bowler beats his opponent, his team is awarded 2 points. Thus it is possible for a bowler to win 10 points individually by defeating his man five times in a match. The team with the highest total pinfall after each game is awarded 6 points. Thus if a team wins all five matches, it is awarded 30 points. Finally, at the end of the five game match, the team with the greatest total pinfall com-
