STUDY REVEALS 82% OF C.U.B. BUDGET SPENT OR COMMITTED TO BE; WILSON SAYS BOARD HAS PLENTY FOR REST OF YEAR

Yearbook Proceeding On Schedule

Despite two years of problems, The Lamp and Shield will return this year with a hardback cover, color pictures, and delivery before the end of school. While some may not believe this, it's all true, even delivery before the end of school.

Judi Plyler, editor of the 1978 Lamp & Shield have been working extremely hard to make sure this year's book is excellent. Plyler told The Lance that she "was an in Winston-Salem, N.C., this past Tuesday attending to business with Hunter Publishing Company." "The color photography deadline was met, and all materials sent in were complete," Plyler said. She also informed The Lance that group shot pictures were a great success. Seniors pictures will be taken after Thanksgiving break; notices and sign up sheets will be posted.

Yearbooks will go on sale outside the cafeteria at lunch and dinner during the week following Thanksgiving break. Annuals will cost

$10.00 if purchased during this week, $12.00 in purchased after this week but by December 20, $15.00 during the month of January, and $18.00 through February. A $5.00 deposit will be required at the time of purchase, with the final payment due when the student receives the book. Students wishing to purchase yearbooks after the initial sales week should see a staff member or Judi Plyler.

During lunch and dinner on Friday a questionnaire will be distributed. The purpose of the questionnaire is to obtain student response to the St. Andrews community. These comments are for potential

A ROYAL FAMILY: Czar Nicholas II of Russia, his wife and five children were murdered by the Bolsheviks in 1918 following the Russian Revolution. One daughter of the Czar, Anastasia (far left) is thought by many to have been the sole survivor, and the woman who claims to be the Grand Duchess will be visiting St. Andrews November 28.

ANASTASIA, CLAIMANT TO THRONE OF THE CZARS, TO VISIT ST. ANDREWS

The Grand Duchess Anastasia, claimant to the Russian Throne, and subject of the famous film on her ordeal, will be a guest at St. Andrews Presbyterian College the first day of classes after Thanksgiving vacation. The visit of HRH Anastasia will be Monday, November 28. She will be accompanied by her husband, Dr. John E. Manahan, history professor at the University of Virginia and the University of Maryland, before dedicating his entire time to the legal case to prove Anastasia's claim to be the Empress of Russia. Third member of the visiting party will be the European attorney of Anastasia, Prince Frederick of Saxe-Altenburg.

The three have just completed a film for NBC on "The Search for Anastasia," which will be the topic of the evening.

The search seeks to disprove the generally accepted story that the entire family of Czar Nicholas II was murdered during the Russian Revolution and that, through almost miraculous events and great courage, Anastasia survived the slaughter, maintaining under brutal circumstances for decades, striving to receive rightful recognition.

The movie classic

"Anastasia"—starring Ingrid Bergman and Yul Brynner has been obtained by Student Personnel and will be shown Monday night, November 21 in the Student Union Lounge twice—at 7 p.m. and at 9:30 p.m.

It will be a week later that the party of the Grand Duchess will arrive. There will be a dinner in her honor in the President's Dining Room at 6 p.m. Then, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Manahan and Prince Frederick, accompanied by the guest of honor, will tell of "The Search" in Vardell Choir Room.

In the midst of charges and countercharges surrounding the CUB controversies of the past ten days, two documents have stood out at opposite ends of the spectrum, around which most people's beliefs have been polarizing. These two are the petition calling for the removal of top CUB officers and the CUB's reply. Unfortunately, since both documents present claims radically at variance with one another. There has been no independent effort made to correlate the facts behind the two papers. This article will attempt to examine the evidence over which these contentions have been made.

Two of the petition's eight charges have been ignored by the CUB. One of these, a Pertinent to the CUB by-laws situation, the Board admits operating since the beginning of the year without them, but notes that one committee was set up on September 27 and a second on November 8, due to the non-reporting of the original group. The LANCE has learned that the first committee was never given a specific date by which to report. Discussions of the removal of several members of the Board were held and only terminated when the absence of by-laws was pointed out to the Board.

Business Office print-outs and figures provided by the CUB Treasurer show that the CUB has spent to date, exclusive of the film series, $5209.62. There being $3000 criticism of the CUB's choice of bands is obviously too subjective a charge for this reporter to comment on. The second alleges that CUB Chairman Ed Wilson had promised the Board he would travel to all the dorms to seek suggestions from students and that he did not do this.

CUB Chairman Ed Wilson explained that he had not thought it proper for the Executive Board to devote part of its answer to a charge that was directed specifically at him. "I did meet," he told the LANCE, "with most of the Presidents or Vice-Presidents of the dorms we were having problems with. I think we got solved the problems that we were having at that time."

committed or spent for the movies, $800 for the Dinner-Dance, and $2000 for the Spring Fling Weekend, $11004.62 or 82 percent of the CUB's budget has already been spent or committed. $2496.38 is what remains to be allocated. This information substantiates what the petition claims; over 3/4 of the budget has been allocated.

Asked by the LANCE about the CUB's financial shape, Chairman Ed Wilson said today, "With $2,500 left uncommitted at this point, I'd say we're doing well. When warmer weather comes, parties will be moving outside, and Farrago will be helping us pick up the slack on weekends we don't have
