

THE LANCE

LIBRARY
St. Andrews Presbyterian College

FEB 22 1980

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

Vol. 80, No. 3

Laurinburg, North Carolina 28352

Thursday, Feb. 21, 1980

CREDIT: C.H. Newspaper

Monday Night In The Arts Returns With Ken Kaye (story on page 2)

Former Student Guest Director

By JONI BUCK

As part of the project entitled Shakespeare and the Characterization of Values, The Highland Players are presenting the production of The Taming of the Shrew. This Shakespearean farce is being directed by Gray Eubank, a St. Andrews alumni, with his wife, Diane Tarter-Eubank as the assistant director. They bring with them an impressive set of accomplishments.

Gray was a student at St. Andrews during the '70's. He took numerous theatre courses and worked in many shows, including Fiddler on the Roof, Mary Sunshine, and the Nack. He was also assistant director of Ghost.

Diane is a graduate of Willamette University in Salem, Oregon. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Acting and Directing. Both Gray and Diane attended the Drama Studio of London where they did intensive studies in such areas as song, speech, mime, and dance.

The Eubanks are impressed with the talent they have found here. They feel that smaller schools actually have the most talent available. Neither cares much for the life of the big city. The Eubanks hope to show that New York is not the end of theater.

The Taming of the Shrew will premiere at St. Andrews April 4-6. Gray and Diane see it as a learning experience for themselves and all involved.

Dr. Arthur McDonald is largely responsible for the Eubanks invitation. Plans were started about a year ago and funds McDonald received made these plans a reality.

Elections Board Inquiry Held

By JONI BUCK

On Thursday, Feb. 14, the Senate held an open inquiry to investigate and air certain violations of The Elections Board Guidelines.

The purpose of the meeting was to explore circumstances surrounding elections which were not deemed constitutional. There has been a question of ballot boxes being left unattended, of results not being posted, and of voters being prompted in their choices. The meeting was not a trial, but an attempt to discern and solve problems between the Board and the Senate.

Professor William Loftus, a faculty advisor of the board, outlined problems which the board has faced. There has been a general lack of communication among some of its members. Too many elections were left over from last year, and the Board was not notified of them until late in the Fall. Student apathy on campus and non-attendance among Board members has also been a problem.

Senate interference was also listed. It surfaced during questioning that Janet Cote', chair man of the Elections Board, was unconstitutionally removed from office by David Winslow, President of the Senate. This action occurred when Cote' refused to hold an election in a way which she felt would be unconstitutional.

After hearing discussion from the Board members and others, the Senate decided to withhold action until a later date.

In the last issue of The Lance in an article entitled "Rights Threatened," a reference was made to a gentleman we all know as Lacy. It should have read Officer Lacy Gay. We apologize for the error.

This Week:

THURSDAY, 21 - Writers' Reading 8:00 p.m. Men's DIAC Tournament (Home)

FRIDAY, 22 - Washington's Birthday, Men's DIAC Tournament (Home)

SATURDAY, 23 - Men's DIAC Tournament

MONDAY, 25 - Dangling Conversation 6:15 p.m. (Meditation Room)

TUESDAY, 26 - Cross Currents 7:30 p.m. (Meditation Room)

WEDNESDAY, 27 - CCC Worship Service 6:15 p.m.

Faculty Forum - Prof. White-lecturer, (President's Dining Room) 12:00 p.m.

-Michael Sells gives voice recital, 8:00 p.m. Vardell Gallery, Lee Kesselman accompanist. Reception following.

FIRST CARTER PUTS ANDREW YOUNG IN THE U.S., THEN HE SENDS MUHAMMAD ALI TO AFRICA - MY GOD, HE'D SEND ANY TO IRAQ IF SHE COULD AFFORD THE ABSENTEES FROM SCHOOL.

