

Lamp & Shield

by JOHN H. KRANTZ

The 1979-1980 Lamp and Shield has met its deadline, according to a very weary Jon Johnson. Since the yearbook has met its deadline, it will be brought out on May 1st if Hunior Publishing Company keeps its end of the contract. During the first week the annual will be handed out during lunch-time hours. Later, the Lamp and Shield will be available through the bookstore. Notices will be posted during the last week of school for those who have not picked up their annual.

The annual will be put back on sale for the rest of this month at a cost of $10. After this month, the yearbook will cost $12, except for those who made pledges to buy the yearbook. Jon Johnson is really counting on the students who made pledges.

Jon Johnson is "satisfied with the yearbook," and "had a good time" working on the annual. He also claims that the yearbook is a "fun book." Thus, Johnson can now get his much needed rest.

Scholarship

ATLANTA, GA. - The Ralph McGill Scholarship Fund offers scholarships for the 1980-81 school year of up to $1,500 each to students with southern backgrounds who have completed at least two years of college, Jack Tarver, chairman of the Scholarship Fund stated today. Tarver said the Awards Committee wants to give scholarships to those who are likely to become leaders in the newspaper field.

letter of recommendation from a college authority.

Successful applicants will be required to maintain a "b" average in order to keep the scholarship.

Application blanks may be obtained from: The Ralph McGill Scholarship Fund; Box 4689, Atlanta, Georgia 30302.

A letter of not more than 500 words telling why the applicant wants a scholarship, together with a photograph of the applicant, must accompany each application. Applicants also must have a letter of recommendation from a college authority.

Tired of having to fight the pen and paper to write a letter to your parents? Have no fear. The whole problem has just been solved. Yes!, that's right for a limited time the standard Dear Folks letter will run in print. Cut it out and send it home; your parents will love you for it.

Dear Folks:

Things here are the same old stuff. My grades are fine and I do study. No you may not send this information to Ripley's Believe it or not.

The cafeteria food is bad as usual, but it is good experience, after this nothing will ever upset my stomach again. My supply of Alka Seltzer is running low, though, so if you could send me a refill I would greatly appreciate it.

I have an 8:30 class which is a bummer on Mondays, but I have figured out how to handle this. I send my stuffed Teddy Bear to take notes instead of me. Most of the professors aren't too awake so they can't tell the difference.

Yes, I have been going to church, sort of. My alarm is set on the Gospel channel, so I hear a sermon, every morning, when I wake up. I make it to REAL church about once every other week, which ain't bad for a struggling college student.

Speaking of struggling, just thought I would remind you and Pop that inflation has increased and money doesn't go as far as it used to. So if you don't want to see your child ammaciated, and not having any money to hit the big town of Laurinburg on Saturday night could you please send some money.

Love,

your poor, ammaciated studius Child.

Remember this prize winning piece of TLC (tender loving care) will be limited so cut it out now, before it is too late.
