

Women's Softball End Season

Women's softball finished a winless season last week, after having to recruit inexperienced students to complete the squad. Seniors Spanky Wilson and Rita Sale led the Lady Knights in almost every category.

Debbie Cranford

Photo By Chris Haycox

Brenda Walker

Photo By Chris Haycox

Equestrians Take 4th in Division

Photo By Rooney Coffman

Al Packer to Speak at Banquet

co-host of the "Al McGuire-Billy Packer Show," which is nationally syndicated over the Mutual Radio Network. He is a widely read sportswriter, whose articles have been published in the New York Times and Reader's Digest, among others.

Before joining CBS, Packer was an integral part of NBC's college basketball broadcast team along with Al McGuire and Dick Enberg. Besides his many sports commitments, he serves as a consultant to McDonald's Restaurants and is creator and moderator of a seminar titled "Media Now To The 1990's."

Packer, a former All-ACC player, was a starting guard for Wake Forest in the early 60's. he was a member of the 1962 Wake team that went to the final four of the NCAA Basketball Tournament. The team lost in the semi-finals to Ohio State, who went on to win the national championship, and defeated UCLA for third place.