

In the last Issue of The Lance, there appeared a small comic labeled "T.V. Evangelist's Cross" with a cross shaped doller sign. This comic was signed with my name. I would like to have it known that although I was the original author of this work, I was not the one to do iether the drawing or submission of this particular piece of work. As a member of the Editorial staff of this paper, I was surprized to find its submission in the last edition of the paper.

I brought this point up before the paper in our last meeting of Editors and other interested persons. I was assured that such a mistake would not happen again, and I would like to assure the campus that the comic was not submitted with iether my consent or knowledge. Also to assure the students that the paper does indeed take its responsibilities seriously and tries to acknoweldge when it has made a mistake.

Maybe

It seems like only yesterday; that you have gone away
 If only I had been your fooi "Do you think you would have stayed?"
 You said that it was over, but woulan't ten me why
 That night that you had left me, I could only cry.
 If only we could see the future and plan our lives ahead
 We wouldn't have these heartaches and those harsh words wouldn't have been said.
 If only I hadn't loved you, we could have broken away clean
 But love is what we make it, I guess we made it mean.
 I love you and I need you, plus I want you everyday
 Those words have a lot of meaning and I mean it when I say.
 If only you hadn't kissed me and held me in your arms
 And showed me all your power and your tenderness and charm.
 If only you could love me and read between the lines
 Maybe, just maybe, you can cure this heart of mine.
 But since my eyes are open and the pain is gone away
 Maybe, just maybe, we could be friends again someday.
