

April Fools!

April Fools!

April Fools!

What's Inside

- Turkey basting technique used in Sage 322
- Student recalls "My other life as a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle"
- Bicyclists enraged over cause-walk breathillizer tests
- Winter term in Iran: history department offers new overseas crises course and more!

The Glance

brought to you by twisted minds

President Replaced by Intern

President Rueschling will soon be looking for work as his position will be filled by an intern.

The board of trustees announced earlier today that the office of college president will be made into an intern position in the coming year. They are in the process of searching for a student intern to replace current college president, Thomas Rueschling.

Citing financial reasons for the change, the board says the college will use this policy until the school "gets back on its feet again."

Responding to the violent demonstration of protest by students during lunch in SAGA, one board member said, "It was never our intention to permanently replace the president with an intern. However, because of our financial status, we will look into interns for the next few years."

A student upon hearing the statement made by the trustee member commented, "That's just not a good enough reason to replace him. Students aren't going to stand for this. We never even got the chance to get to know him."

A P.E. staff member also remarked on the situation, "He's comes down to the gym every so often and plays a little ball. He's not bad. We'll sure miss him."

The board also announced that because of their decision, the inauguration that was to be held later this month, has been cancelled.

A communications officer that helped prepare the the inaugural invitations and booklet said, "What a waste of time and money for the board to make such a last minute decision and such a nice man. It's a shame."

A student disappointed that the inaugural dinner was called off said, "What a shock. The administration is playing hockey with our lives again. I was so looking forward to the prime rib."

Rueschling, out of town on college business could not be reached for comment.

Bushoven Will Stage Naked Protest

Mecklenburg Must Go, He says

He's at it again. Neal Bushoven, Chairperson of the Social Science Department and resident activist, is protesting once again. In an attempt to draw attention to his recent request to have Mecklenburg destroyed and rebuilt, Bushoven has vowed to sit naked on the causewalk for an unstated amount of time.

Bushoven supplied The Glance with copies of the three requests to have Mecklenburg "obliterated, flushed into oblivion, and sent to dormitory hell." The requests spurred by the recent rebuilding of "Chez Granville", calls for the residence hall to be destroyed this spring and rebuilt by next fall.

"I don't consider this at all unreasonable," said Bushoven, "because students have the right to expect decent housing when they attend college. As an R.D. I am forced to live with these residents. They want change, but are unsure as to achieve it. I'm just setting the wheels in motion."

When asked about the public support of Bushoven's protest, Hall President Greg Dorsey said, "We are behind Neal 100 percent. The place is a real slum. On any given day, you can walk into a suite and find the floor covered with urine. The floor tiles are missing and there are roaches, I mean big roaches every where. We've tried for two years to make this place habitable. Now its time to level it."

Dorsey was asked if students plan to join in the protest, he said, "Without a doubt. There is no way that a hundred naked people sitting on the causewalk will not attract attention. Maybe we can get some of those virgins in Concord to join in. The timing is just right to get some rays."

In response to this latest information, Dean Greer stated that the protest was immoral and "outrageous".

"Dr. Bushoven is attempting to allow students to have input on the way things are run around here. He is encouraging them to be free, critical thinkers. There's no place for that on this campus. Besides he's exposing them to S-E-X," she said.

In a poll conducted by The Glance, Bushoven seems to have overwhelming support from the student body. Many say they consider Bushoven as an "icon of strength" and a "beacon of hope." A great number say they plan to join Bushoven in the protest.

"Drastic times call for drastic measures," said Bushoven. "I welcome student involvement, but don't want the thing to turn into an orgy and for us to forget our focus."

Bushoven plans to begin his naked sitting on Monday, April 3 at noon. Refreshments will be provided by the Mecklenburg Residence Council. Dr. W.D. White will provide the latex condoms "just in case."

The ever-protesting Dr. Neal Bushoven

Today's Weather

Ideal for plenary skipping!
 Boy it's a hot one----
 Time to hit Granville Beach or Jim's, you decide.
 Lake Ansley Fish Count:
Minnows- 38,000
Carp- 5
Bladderwart- 5+ tons