St. Andrews Athletic Department Undergoes Several Personnel Changes

The St. Andrews athletic department underwent several personnel changes during the summer, including the naming of a new athletic director.

Lorenzo Canalis, who is entering his seventh season as men's soccer coach and fourth season as women's soccer coach, was selected to become the school's new athletic director after former AD and men's basketball coach Mark Simons left in June to accept a basketball coaching position at Georgia College in Milledgeville, Ga. Canalis also previously served as transfer coordinator for the St. Andrew admission office, but those duties have been transferred to counselor Lisa Gaw.

Replacing Simons as men's basketball coach is Ron Lievens. Most recently an assistant at NCAA Division I member Campbell University (1987-91), Lievens was the head men's basketball coach at Averett College in Danville, Va. (1984-87), a graduate assistant with the men's basketball program at Winona State University in Winona, Minn. (1983-82), an assistant men's basketball coach at Normandale Community College in Bloomington, Minn. (1982-83), and the head coach of the freshman basketball team at Thomas Jefferson Senior High School in Bloomington, Minn. (1981-82).

Lievens's new assistant is Cliff Dillard. Lievens and Dillard have worked together previously as Dillard was an undergraduate assistant basketball coach at Campbell University (1985-90) immediately after a one-year stint as an assistant basketball coach at Otero Junior College in LaJunta, Colo. Dillard replaces Kirk Chandler as an assistant coach at St. Andrews.

Ali Alwan is the new assistant coach for both men's and women's soccer. Alwan is also the new men's tennis coach, replacing Bruce Daniels, who coached one year. Alwan's past collegiate coaching experience consists of serving as an assistant coach for the Auburn University at Montgomery soccer team during the 1990 season. Alwan also ran several youth soccer and basketball camps from 1980-87.

Ben Guiliano is the new volleyball and softball coach, replacing Laurel Sue Smith. Guiliano came to St. Andrews from the Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, N.Y., where he worked as women's volleyball coach since 1987. Guiliano was women's and men's volleyball and women's softball coach at Genesee Community College in Batavia, N.Y. He also coached at Batavia High School and Notre Dame High School, both of which are located in Batavia, N.Y. Guiliano's career record as a volleyball coach prior to coming to St. Andrews was 393-141.

Guiliano's new assistant is Bill Rude, also of Rochester. Rude was the assistant volleyball coach at SUNY-Genesee during the 1990 season, and he has also worked with the soccer teams at Ithaca College and Ithaca High School in Ithaca, N.Y. Additionally, Rude has worked as an assistant baseball, football, basketball and wrestling coach. Rude replaces Debbie Proctor as an assistant coach with the St. Andrews volleyball and softball teams.

Steve Padgett, a native of Ottumwa, Ia., has joined the St. Andrews baseball program as an assistant coach. Padgett was an assistant coach at Wingate during the spring 1991 season. He will work primarily with the pitching staff at St. Andrews. Before working at Wingate, Padgett was head baseball coach for two years and assistant basketball coach for one year at Oak Ridge Academy, which is located near Greensboro. He was his school's athletic conference coach of the year during both seasons at head coach. Padgett played baseball collegiately at Iowa State University.

Shelby French, director of the St. Andrews equestrian program, has added two people to her staff — Sally Dohner of Southern Pines and Chris Kelly of Landenberg, Pa.

Dohner is the new head of the community riding program and will also serve as assistant facility manager at Singing Wood Farm, home to the St. Andrews equestrian program. Dohner brings more than 30 years of teaching experience with riders of all ages, as well as 19 years as an American Horse Show Recognized Judge.

A veteran of numerous years of riding, training horses and coaching, Kelly is the new Director of Riding and IHSA team coach. He replaces Jon Conyers, who left St. Andrews to accept a similar position with the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, Va.

St. Andrews' Men's Golf Team Begins Season

The St. Andrews College Men's golf team opened its season by playing in the Seventh Annual Francis Marion College Fall Invitational Sept. 21-22 at the Wellman Country Club in Johnsonville, S.C.

St. Andrews posted a two day total of 676 to finish 24 out of 27 teams entered. David Greene shot an 82 both days to lead St. Andrews, followed by teammates William Carter (170), Mark Newton (176), David Spruill (177) and David Kaeli (76; first round only).

The Citadel won the team competition with a 601. Belmont Abbey College was the top Carolina Conference team in the tournament with a ninth place total of 627. Other CIAC schools taking part were Pembroke State University (640, 12th), Mount Olive College (644, 14th), Coker College (646, 15th) and Barton College (673, 22nd).

The Knights return to action on Oct. 3 with a match at Wingate College.
