Last Will and

I, Jan Wilson, being of dreamy mind, and tall body do hereby leave my room and wild flower collection in the Granville woods to Patrice Barentine and Shelley Johnson; to Monique Brock I leave my favorite nude sun bathing spot; to Doug Snyder, Josh Foote and Pepe Miranda I leave a year's supply of jugs and kisses; to Mike Stark, I leave a bar of soap; to Will Ray and Jesse Dingott I leave a cup of coffee; to Bonnie Glen I leave a "cool person" sticker; to Austin I leave an "Every thing you need to know about Psychology in One Hour" Book; to the Excellent Japanese Drums Ensemble I leave the Zen of stress-free practices and performances; and to all of the incoming freshpeople and transfers I leave many years of beautiful experiences, long walks around the lake, cotton picking, cohabitation, warm jugs, big smiles, love and inner peace as well as a deep hunger for what is yet to happen beyond St. Andrews -- This is a beautiful place of loving and learning - Until the next time -- See you all on the flip side!

I, Michelle Sasser, being of Pfeiffer-bashing mind and body, hereby leave to Joe, Church, Shawn, Tony and Sprouse best wishes for a winning senior season and the determination to keep them out of Kansas City.

I leave my worn-out Webster's Dictionary to Kerry Nuti, who like myself, cannot spell!

I leave my extra closets to Jennifer Thompson, who truly needs more room for all her clothes.

I leave a secondary container to Candace Meredith, who appears to have heart failure whenever she sees me and doesn't have one.

I leave determination and tact to Eddie Brown who will need them as Student Government President for next year.

-Lennie Jones

i, Janna Turner, being weak in body yet resilient in mind, wish patience and understanding upon the incoming and returning students; to Phil i give two arms to hold him forever and reassure him that you are loved, to Nikki i give you thanks for introducing me to the real world and ignoring my gawky stares, to Dre, where ever you are, thank you, to K-calmness, a silent stream to sit beside and while away the hours with that piper Pan, and to Jen, how could i have made without you? you found me underneath all that junk; i'm glad you are a treasure hunter and that you are so good.

I, Rebecca Harvard, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the following;

To John Sprouse - memories of some of the most special moments of my Senior year. Also, I leave to you sweetheart, the ability to take a test on the given day and a clean rag to wipe the brown stuff off your nose! You know I love you.

To Jenny Cook - the ability to say "I AM AWESOME" and not take crap from anybody.

To Trinlie Yeaman - the job of Granville social chairperson because I wrote you in. Also the painted window as a way of asking you to carry on the Granville tradition.

To Jennifer Ballard and all my psych buddies - Bill Faw. You know what? He's all right.

I, Missy McGill, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Ward Sokoloski all the headaches of being SGA Treasurer - you will find friends you never thought you had; to Joy Starkey I leave my G.P.A. and study habits and to Corinne Nicholson I leave my thanks for three years of terrific advice and my deep admiration and respect.

Being of sound mind and body, I, Tebbi Grainger, leave to Melissa my Senior Sem cases and my baby-sitting job; Allison my Cosmo's; Katie my toenail clippers and title of "The Most Time Spent Passed Out in the Bathroom;" Cathy my turkey and cheese sandwiches; Denise my Lucky Charms and ketchup; Robyn a leash, in case you have to babysit a drunkard like we did on Halloween; Gary my slinky; Paul my leather bracelet; Vic my ugly "corns;" Mikey some new lungs; Moonie my Hypercolor shirt; Ralph my recommendation to you-know-who and my earring; Stu my recommendation to Georgia and a rain check; Brian my habit of brushing my hair out of my face (oops! you already have that) and memories of the terrible threesome; Mattie my quietness; Newton that hangover helper we bought at Express Stop; Travis my rum; RJ my watergun, my kite and a concoction of ketchup and salad dressing; Tommy my coffee table; Kelly my large breasts; Bobby my phone number and instructions on how to use it; Lisa my ability to be a bitch; Robin my beer and hope that you and Alan make it; Doolen my Geritol, my appreciation for all that you've done for me and my heart; Mr. Littleton my chewing gum (pops! and all); and finally, the Faculty my thanks and appreciation.
