COLLEGE MEDIA ADVISORS AND SCOLASTIC PRESS ASSOCIATION

Learn from the best of this country's professional communicators in the most exciting media city in the world.

As an editor, staff member, business or advertising manager or broadcast staff member of a college student media operation—newspaper, yearbook, magazine, radio or television station—you'll be glad you came. This is the most extensive conference of this kind in the northeast.

Inquire at the Lance Office for further information.

Wanted

Responsible people who love to write humorous poems, stories, or editorials. People who are skilled in photography, or have layout experience.

You are needed for your school paper. If you have imagination, a good sense of humor and enjoy finding out interesting facts about things in general, then The Lance is the right place for you.

All interested people need to come by The Lance office and leave your name, phone number, and box number in the message box.

Now is the time for all good people to rise up and voice their opinions to their friends and comrades. This is your opportunity to be known, and to get involved with one of the fastest growing information processes at St. Andrews. Become a part of the team, join today. Other openings include:

- * Sports writers
- * Feature writers
- * Student Activity writers
- * MacIntosh computer operators

For further information, please contact Matt Peck #5659, or stop him anywhere that you see him, and tell him your interest in the paper--your paper!!

The Lance is your paper, and I am committed to it.
Thanks.
