Spring Break '93

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla — It is time to start planning for Spring Break 1993.

Daytona Beach, Florida is still the premier destination for Spring Break. From mid-February through mid-April, thousands of students throughout the United States and Canada will travel to Daytona Beach. Spring Break has drawn crowds as large as 200,000-400,000, and 1993 should be just as busy.

Some of the events in the planning stages for 1993 are:

- * Much music, Canadian Music Television, broadcasts and concerts

- * Tenth Annual Miss Hawaiian Tropic International Pageant

- * Volleyball and softball

- * Molson's Obstacle Course

- * College Music Showcase Rock Concert

- * Product expos games and giveaways

- * Annual "Largest Class" picture on the beach

- * 25 annual Easter Beach Run

- * And of course, plenty of sun!!!

In addition, two American favorites—playboy and basketball—are combined to bring visitors 2-in-1 fun! The terms "pick & roll, hitting the open man, running the floor" and "crashing the boards" take on a whole new meaning at the annual Playboy/Schick Spring Break, 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament on March 8-12, 15-19 and 22-26.

The tournament will take place on the Ora Street Lot south of Holiday Inn Boardwalk.

Registration begins at 10 a.m. with tournament play from 11-5 p.m. Meet Playboy playmates throughout the event.

Free t-shirts will be given to all entrants with prizes at each round. The winning team each week will receive $3000.

As Spring Break '93 marks the beginning of spring baseball around the United States, Daytona Beach has all one can handle. The Daytona Beach Spring Break College Baseball Jamboree has games scheduled throughout the month of March at Jackie Robinson Ball Park, located just a short walk from the beach.

Each day from March 8 through the 31, up to 3 games a day will be played. Some of the teams are Bluefield State College, Connecticut State, Cornell, Kean College, Bethune-Cookman, ERAU, William Patterson and more.

Vacation at Daytona Beach will also include wrestling matches and hockey. The Ocean Center of Daytona Beach will present matches on March 20 at 7:30 p.m., and the Daytona Beach Sundevils will take to the ice for Sunshine Hockey League activity on March 21, 22 and 23 at 7:30 p.m.

For more information on accommodations, contact tour representatives on campus or DESTINATION DAYTONA!, the Convention and Visitors' Bureau for Daytona Beach at 1-800-854-1234.

Purgatory

Do you want me -
Or what I could do for you?

we could get undressed
for a while,
of course it doesn't matter

it's cold in here
under the sheets,
cold
like a shoulder or
a distant stare,
it's not cold
in there.

Far

you -
take a look at me,
would you?
could you see a little
to what was true?
it's so dark in here-
staring out
I'm not really sure
how I feel about
you or anything except I know I could point
to any star
and from you
it couldn't be as far as I am.

An example of social life decline?: Partying on campus

By Lucian H. Neal

St. Andrews tradition holds that Granville dormitory throws "killer" parties with a very good band, various little parties and everything else. If one asked a sophomore, junior or senior if last Saturday night's party was comparable to past years' parties, he/she would probably have to say no. The dorm had a good band, and to play pop as well as rock is a rarity at St. Andrews!

Although the band was "above average," one thing was lacking. A large crowd of people was not there. One could easily tell this the next morning by noticing the lack of beer cans and bottles in the recycling bins.

These large, blue crates usually have a great number of beer cans overflowing the edges of each receptacle the morning after such a party. Being one of the first dorm parties of 1993 and the weather still cool may have been two of the reasons for the rare-sized crowd. But it still allowed students an opportunity to socialize and catch up in friendships.

One such friend was Kathryn Finger who studied in Europe during winter term. She missed socializing with her friends and also the bonfires while she was away. She remained in and around the courtyard socializing and dancing near the warmth of the flames in its center.

Students of Granville built the large fire under supervision when the temperature dropped into the mid-to-upper 30's. Most everyone stood either around it talking and drinking, mingled in various suites or gathered in the larger Activities of Daily Living apartments.

Sean Virkler, a former student of St. Andrews who transferred to NC State in Raleigh, visited too. When I saw him in Albemarle, we were both deathly quiet with surprise. We had not seen nor talked to each other since May of 1992 when Sean transferred. We proceeded to walk back to my ADL #6 talking, catching up along the way.
