

Freshman Fill-In!!!

By Terra McVoy

I know the feeling you're talking about. You walk into SAGA, sit down to nice, steaming hot plate of something thoroughly unrecognizable, and then, it catches your eye... a loose tendril of hair... a twisted smile in the curve of some far-away alpine trail. You stop, hesitate, look again and then, almost uncontrollably explode: "Who the hell is that??"

Never fear, little darlings; we are not

(contrary to belief) being invaded by FBI undercover agents. They are merely the Brunnenburgers: people who existed here before even you, who have spent the fall semester away in the alps of Italy, and who now have returned to reclaim their spaces among our numbers.

And just so you don't feel left out any longer, I am here to fill you in on who they are.

Mary Rebekah Cox -- An erstwhile, classily-dressed, pixie-haired, and wide, summer-eyed junior, Mary Rebekah is currently majoring in Art. She can often be spotted in Suite Seven, Orange, with the likes of Allan Hadfield, another returning student who plays drums in the pipe band and is easily identifiable by his red bushy hair.

Jo Hiebert -- A junior-year education major, also easily recognizable by his immense amount of curly hair, Jo lives in Suite Six of

The Brunnenburg Crew

Albemarle, but can be seen hanging around the questionable likes of both Mike Lake and Kellam Parks when he isn't busy entertaining his girlfriend, Andi Bogan, who visits from Greensboro, NC. Gretchen Hoffman -- Easily elusive and often hard to track down, Gretchen is a tall, silky-headed brunette who is majoring in History. Gretchen is a senior, so to get your fill of her before she leaves, try visiting Suites five, four, or three in Orange; she'll be with rambunctious characters such as Lindley Robertson, Brad Johnson, or Shelby Melvin. Brad Johnson -- Easily recognizable by his long, flowing hair and Jimi Hendrix sway, Brad -- a senior -- lives in Suite Four, Orange, and is a Creative Writing major. He can be caught at Thursday night

Writer's Forums, and/or in his room with either Blake Masters, Jose Ralat, Adam MacKenzie, or any combination of St. Andrews vagrants who choose to bask in his effervescence.

Adam MacKenzie -- Definitely a well-rounded guy, this blonde-haired, All-American sophomore is currently a math major, but also excels in music. Despite keeping to himself and/or his work a majority of the time, Adam can be pulled into a conversation by pegging him in Suite Six, Orange, with either Joe Bowers, or Jose Ralat whose company he often keeps.

Marylyle McCue -- Sporting perhaps what could be considered the coolest hairdo on campus, Marylyle is currently a sophomore majoring in History. This month she has been frequently spotted sketching various figures at parties, and spending hours in the Art Studio. She can also be found, however, in Orange, Suite Two, with her suitemates, and/or hob-nobbing in Suite One of Orange with Mel Gobbi.

Tyler McPeek -- Known already for his flirtatiousness, Tyler lives somewhere in the depths of Meck and is majoring in Creative Writing. Tyler is only a sophomore, but chooses to camouflage that fact by hanging out with the derelict duo of Chris Lindstrom and Parker Edwards, as well as various and sundry women from Suite Three, Orange.

Melanie Olkowski -- Musically blonde and fluid, Melanie may seem quiet at first, but her smile is mischievous and her persona genuine. Melanie is a Biology major and therefore can be located in various MorganJones labs from time to time; that is, when she isn't flitting around Orange with a wide variety of interesting creatures including Brad Johnson and Marylye McCue. And there's more!!

Not all of our Italian voyagers have returned yet! Keep your eyes peeled and your ears perked for the likes of the blonde world-traveller Heather Hayden; the strawberry-blonde, smiling Emily Hulley; the dark and mysterious Donna Samander; the sunny Taialofa Russell, the artistic Dana Hardwicke and drum-beating, hair-swinging Simeon Minshew!
