

not.

SLS: I've had other interview subjects recommend sneaking out food in their clothing. Do you recommend that?

TFF: That would depend on the food. You've got to remember, if you're walking, it's going to squish.

SLS: Do you have any tips?

TFF: Try to go in the middle of a crowd, look like you know what you're doing and you're supposed to be leaving. And it's really hard to sneak food out in your pants.

SLS: Is that the voice of experience?

TFF: (No comment.)
