THE LANCE

Masthead

E-Volume 2

Ganza Diary

My plan was to record a minute by minute account of my experiences at Ganza. Unfortunately, I didn't have a watch to keep track of the minutes. And I didn't get out much either.

Ganza 2000 was everything that I expected. There was lots of music, lots of beer and lots of people. It's clear to me now why I didn't go last year.

So perhaps you are wondering why. Well, perhaps you are not, but I will tell you anyway.

Letters to the Lance

That's right, finally a response is evoked from our oh so avid readers. See what your fellow students have to say.

The Lance will be available on the Intranet until the end of the semester. Graduations and transfers will cleanse the staff and only one member will remain next semester. We'd like to thank everyone who supported us. No thanks to everyone else, who didn't turn in articles or who wanted The Lance on paper, filled with news two months old, so the college could have something to send to alumni who wouldn't notice how dated it was.
