WARM WEATHER

CAMPUS CLUBS AND CAPERS By Nancy Andrews

The International Relations, Ozlin. Club met in the right front parlor on Wednesday, April 22 at French Club members had a ban-4:40 p. m. The president opened quet in the dining hall. Immedithe meeting with prayer. A short ately following this the group business session was held after moved to the right front parlor which the president turned the where they had a regular meetprogram over to the vice-president. The speakers for the afternoon were Mickie Jernigan whose topic was "Communism in Asia" and Betty Lou Lamb, who gave a very interesting coverage of the "Five Anti and Three Anti Movements in China." Immediately following this excellent program Fave Jenkins and Sara Sanders gave a brief review of the conference which they had attended at Meredith College in Raleigh on April 18. A brief social hour then followed.

The William Bartram Scientific Society met in the right front parlor on Tuesday, April 28 at 4:40 p. m. The officers for 1953-1954 were installed. A very interesting and enjoyable program was given by Mrs. Sprunt on bird carving.

their regular monthly meeting sive installation service on the in the right front parlor on April 24 at 4:40 p. m. The president day evening, April 24 at 6:40 p presided over the business session. The primary purpose of the meeting was to elect officers for the coming year. Those chosen to serve in the respective offices were President, Lucile Wilds; Vice-President, Sue Little Wood; Secretary and Treasurer, Martha Ann Morrison; and Custodian of the Scrapbook, Betty Jo Hatcher. The members then discussed plans for several parties which are to be held later in the year.

The French Club had a very short business meeting after lunch on April 20 at which time the new officers for the club were elected. Those chosen were Prsident, Audrey Milligan; Vice-President, Mary Ella Mize; and Secretary and Treasurer, Micky

He is also having some of the bushes cut down around the pool so the sun can get to it. I am sure all of us are going to enjoy the pool much better after this has been done. The tennis courts seem to be one of the most popular spots on the campus now. All the girls are trying to get in their five hours of practice in order to be eligible for the tournament. There will be two tournaments, one for the more skilled players, and one for those who haven't had very much experience in the sport. We
