

IRC Celebrates Tenth Birthday Party

The IRC party was held February 11 at 6:40 in the right front parlor. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Woodson, Mrs. McCain, and Miss Hazel Morrison. Special games were directed by Becky Williams. They were "percolating", and one in which different teams acted out famous quotations for the other side to guess. Dr. Woodson taught them how to play a game called "John Brown's Body." Harriet McAuley cut the birthday cake which was beautifully decorated with red icing roses. Miss Robertson decorated the table which was covered by a valentine tablecloth. Nuts, mints, and special vanilla and strawberry ice cream was also served.

Miss Robertson organized the IRC ten years ago in January. Since then it has become one of the most outstanding IRC groups in the state. The purpose of the club is to promote better relations among races and nations and also to gain a better understanding and knowledge of what is going on in the nations. At every meeting two topics of major interest are discussed and one topic of over-all current events.

Pledges Go To WUS

Each quarter the Christian Association pledges are used for some specific purpose. Pledges this quarter will go to the World University Service.

The World University is composed of all students and professors all over the world. W. U. S. originated in Europe fifteen years ago. It is not affiliated with any foundation or government. The purpose of World University Service is to help students by supplying books and other supplies. Much help has been given to students in Asiatic countries. Recently Susie Perking, W. U. S. representative, visited the campus.

Heard Around The Corner

By "Peeps"

Hello,
Last weekend was really a big one for the girls at FMC, especially for the girls who went to the dances at Fort Bragg and PJC. We've seen uniforms from all the branches of the armed forces, Clemson, and who knows, now, maybe we'll be seeing something of the "Citadel Men".

Did you all know that red with black and white accessories is just the vogue for spring and summer. Shoes will be lighter in color with White Sand (the color of desert moonlight) and "Coffee Frost" (taffy color) predominating. Not to be forgotten, are the blues and grays.

Have any of you played Galypso? It's a combination of Canasta and Bridge. Sounds fascinating, doesn't it?

I suppose by now that each of you is familiar with the records "Make Yourself Comfortable" and "I Gotta Crow". The latter may never be a hit, but it surely is different.

Something new was added at the Freshmen-Sophomore Dance—appearance of long gloves. Flora Macdonald girls are beginning to realize that it's fun to dress correctly and according to the styles which are so evident in the other colleges.

Did you know that rutabagas were turnips and that an angle cannot be trisected?

New Books Added To Library

Two new books have been added to our library. They were given by the Faculty and Staff of Flora Macdonald College in memory of Robert Bruce Gwynn, brother of Dr. Price H. Gwynn, Jr., Dean of the College. One of these books is Mr. William Shakespeare's Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies, a facsimile edition of the First Folio of Shakespeare's plays issued in 1623. The contents include all of the thirty-seven plays now published in the complete works of Shakespeare. There is an introduction by Charles Tyler Prouty, professor of English at Yale. The other book is Hammond's Ambassador World Atlas. One of the most useful and fascinating features of this Atlas is the extensive index that includes all cities and towns and physical features on the maps in the collection. Throughout the index are photographs of interesting places and street maps of the world's leading cities, showing locations of places of interest to tourists and businessmen. Both students and faculty are very grateful for these gifts. They are a valuable addition to the library and will be very useful to all.

Seniors Are Busy Making Graduation Plans

The Senior class is really getting excited about their graduation that is coming up in three months. They have been busy choosing their silver pattern and ordering their invitations. A big meeting was held Feb. 16th to line up plans for all of the graduation exercises. One of the big events will be the "capping" exercises. A list has been placed on the second floor bulletin board for the Seniors to sign — the Junior's names for the "capping" exercises. Before long all of their plans will be announced.

Plans Get Underway For Junior-Senior Dance

Big plans have been made by the Junior and Senior classes in preparation for the annual Junior-Senior Dance on March 12, 1955.

The music will be provided by Jimmy Morgan, who leads a highly recommended dance band, from Laurel Hill, North Carolina. The band will consist of eight instruments and a vocalist.

"Tara" will be the theme of this gala event and in carrying it out, the attention will be focused on a lovely fountain in the center of the dance floor rather than on the usual backdrop.

of the resorts, demands early application, and students interested in working there are urged to send their application immediately to the Montreat Association. Students will need strong letters of recommendation to reinforce their applications as the waiting list carries over from year to year.

FMC students are urged to cooperate in two ways: First, students who had summer employment in a resort last year and think there is a possibility of other students' obtaining employment at the same place are urged to turn in the names and addresses of their employment officer so that they might be contacted by other students. Second: students seeking summer employment are urged to register at the Guidance Office. Simply fill out a 3 x 5 card with your name and address, your age, work experience, and the type of employment you desire. Students who have already registered need not register again.

The Guidance Center will do every thing within its power to see that the best jobs obtainable are brought to the attention of the students of FMC. Register now; be the first to apply.
