

OUR HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

Dr. P. W. Moore, President Emeritus

A straight-forward man who has been crowned with an honor that has been given to no other man in North Carolina. His motto is "Be somebody".

Prof. J. H. Bias, President

Because of his ability and worth-while achievements, he was appointed as the successor of Dr. P. W. Moore. Our president always gives sound, timely advice.

Miss E. C. Harris

A faithful English teacher in the High School department, who always meets her classes with a smile.

Miss W. M. King

One who knows Latin and French and greets her classes always with, "Bon jour, mes eleves."

Professor R. E. Barnett

A man who knows all about Geometry and Trigonometry and insists that the students know something too.

Professor A. P. Lester

"Take the next thought," from the man who knows all about science.

Miss Johnson

She has little to say but knows her business when it comes to making garments and preparing appetizing foods.

Miss M. Z. Marshall

Read, but don't keep the books over time; if so, you are sure to get some mail the following day.

Rev. J. T. Doles

"Wait a minute, daughter." Faithful in everything and really knows History.

—Catherine M. Anthony.

TASKS OF THE DAY

There is a song in the air
That's thrilling my heart;
It's telling a message
That will cause us to part.

We will part to wander
Among the dreary hills;
To wade in the brooks
And cross the rills.

We will chase the sunbeams,
And follow them home,
To be content,
Ne'er again to roam.

—A. V. Jennette.

TO STATE NORMAL

I think of thee with thy great name,
And as a school divine;
May thy true light forever shine
To guide the youth in line.
The youth that from the dark doth rise
Receives a drink divine;
And had I all the schools' great names,
I would not change for thine.

—Miss Rosa Adams.

"WISE AND OTHERWISE"

ADAMS, ROSA

"Rosebud"

"Manner is all in all, whate'er is writ."

Stylish, graceful and affectionate.

To enter A. & T. College.

ALLEN, MARY

"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

Studious, popular, graceful.

To enter Durham State College.

ANTHONY, CATHERINE

"Cat"

"What's done is done."

Lovely, neat, stylish.

To enter St. Agnes Hospital.

BELL, PETER H.

"P. H."

"Circumstances are the creatures of men."

Short, sleepy, neat.

To enter Howard.

BEMBRY, MARTHA

"Begin low; rise slow."

Modest, sunny, retiring.

To enter Normal.

BIAS, JAMES

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose."

Large, boisterous, reckless.

To enter Lincoln University.

BLACKMON, CLEORA

"Cleo"

"Patience is a necessary ingredient of genius."

Gentle, neat, humorous.

To enter Normal.

BOND, EVA

"Man is not the creature of circumstances."

Tall, proud, jolly.

To enter Normal School.

BOWSER, HELEN

"A soft answer turneth away wrath."

Stylish, pleasing, chaste.

To enter Hampton Institute.

BRILEY, ROOSEVELT

"Discretion of speech is more than eloquence."

Honorable, courteous, handsome.

To enter Durham State College.

BURFOOT, VIVIAN B.

"I am monarch of all I survey."

Quiet, refined, coy.

To enter Normal School.

CABARRUS, HENRY

"Time will develop everything."

Tall, musical, popular.

To enter Hampton Institute.

CLARK, DAISY

"With words we govern men."

Modest, popular, jolly.

To enter Durham State College.

DAVIS, ALEXANDER

"Bish"

"Heaven help those who help themselves."

Athletic, musical, ambitious.

To enter Shaw University.

DAVIS, VIOLA

"Vie"

"Don't waste time."

Quiet, studious, modest.

To enter Durham State College.

EASON, MILES

"Ruddy"

"Not there, but climbing."

Studious, witty, active.

(Continued on Page 10)