

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL CLUBS

TOUJOURS AMIES

This is another, to be found in the list of clubs on our campus. The fact that it has such a large membership must prove that it is both interesting and helpful.

Young ladies! When thinking seriously of joining some club, please remember to take this one into consideration.

President, Sallie Arrington; Secretary, Gladys Banks; Sponsor, Mrs. Haley.

THE B NATURAL

These young ladies have started off with the right spirit; already they have had charge of prayer meeting and have given a Halloween party; of course we understand that their plans are quite numerous.

Keep up the good work where there's interest there's plenty accomplished.

President, Catherine Turner; Secretary, Catherine Hunter; Sponsor, Miss Evelyn Johnson.

THE MALE GLEE CLUB

The male club began the year by adding several new students to its roll. The Glee club immediately began preparing for a tour.

The members of the Glee club realized that such an organization was new to the public and that they had to win a reputation for themselves. They therefore, buckled down to hard work so that they might do themselves and the school credit when they left the school.

The glee club left the campus on Monday morning, Nov. 29, 1937 at 9 a. m., and gave a recital at Edenton at 11 a. m. From there it went to Williamston where a recital was given that night, the members remaining overnight there. The first stop Tuesday morning was at Plymouth when after the recital the faculty members served the glee club lunch. Tuesday night found the glee club at Washington. Wednesday was the hardest day of all. A recital was given at Greenville at 10 a. m., one at Farmville at 2 p. m., a broadcast was given over station W. E. E. D., in Rocky Mount at 5 o'clock, and a recital that evening at the Booker T. Washington High School in Rocky Mount. On Thursday a program was given at Wilson at 10 a. m. The club journeyed to Snow Hill for a program at 2 p. m., and rounded up the night at Kinston. Friday saw the club making only one stop and that at Smithfield for the campus which it reached about 4 p. m. Throughout the trip every member of the glee club boosted State Normal School and tried to encourage students to enter the institution.

New plans are already under way. It is hoped that another tour will be undertaken in the spring. The members of the glee club feel that because of the experience gained on the fall trip the organization will steadily improve and be able to give better programs.

THE WOMANS GLEE CLUB

The Womans Glee Club under the direction of Miss E. A. Johnson is progressing rapidly though the majority of the members are new. During the past quarter the Glee Club has been responsible for the music during Sunday School periods.

The Negro spirituals seem to be favorites of the club. They are also singing quite a number of songs arranged by the famous Hall Johnson Choir. These syncopated songs seem to make a strong appeal to the audience.

Miss Johnson works untiringly in order that the Glee Club might reach greater heights.

The Glee Club is planning great things for the future. These things will come to light within the next few months.

Any young women who are interested in music and would like to become members of this organization should see Miss E. A. Johnson at once.

President, Eleanor Swain; Secretary, Ezell Johnson; Director, Miss E. A. Johnson.

THE MALE GLEE CLUB

The Male Glee Club started its second year of work under the direction of Mr. Leon DeKalb. Seventeen members from the previous year answered the first call to practiced. Thirteen new members were added making the organization thirty strong.

The Glee Club immediately started on a long series of hard drills and practices in preparation for a tour of Eastern North Carolina and for broadcasts over different stations.

After three months of hard work the Glee Club left S. N. S. campus November 29, on its tour and returned December 3rd.

The Male Glee Club expects to have a full and busy year. Several broadcasts over station W. T. A. R. are planned. Recitals are to be given at various churches in Elizabeth City. One at Virginia Union in Norfolk, Va., and one at Fayetteville State Normal.

The officers are:

President, Chester Askew; Secretary, Edward Clemmons; Business Manager, Dennie Cherry; Director, Mr. Leon DeKalb.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The club, this year is planning to participate in its usual activities. They are: the presentation of a play to be given here on the campus, and to take part in the College Festival.

Here's wishing them luck.

President, Chester Askew; Secretary, Catherine Turner; Sponsor, Miss E. J. Lewis.

THE VARSITY "S" CLUB

This club is composed only of members of the campus wearing the Varsity letter "S". The club was organized on October 15, 1937 with Ernell White elected president and William Curtis secretary and business reporter.

The club was organized under the sponsorship of the athletic coach, D. G. Brandon. The club has, at present done much to help on the drives of the different projects on the campus.

They took valuable time from their football practices in order to help with the bleacher fund and the election of Miss S. N. S.

Strenuous efforts will be made to help on the drive for the purchase of a bus. Something new is being planned by this club; a presentation of a musical comedy, "HARLEM REVUE." The cast for this comedy will be composed of the different talented people on the campus. This will be presented for the benefit of the bus fund.

ARE WE REALLY MOVIE STARS

Look! Who do we have here? Ah! it's Miss Carolyn Williams. Hold that pose please! Give us a smile Miss Law Snap! ah! I caught you Mr. Wendell Jones. No! No! You can't hide behind Mr. Ruben Barnes, Miss Annie Watford—this modern invention of the movie camera is too quick for you.

Just a moment please! Goodness! Did you see that grand tackle exhibited by Woodhouse? Boy what a picture that is going to make. Gosh! Look at Morgan go. Snap Snap! I caught Reese and Curtis, Percy McCleave, Mizell, Crowder, Chambers, Bowser, Rice, Dickens, the Felon brothers and Whichard.

Ah! Won't this make a grand scene? Miss State Normal in the person of Miss Catherine Turner and her attendants.

Let me catch those upon the bleachers. The Misses Harrell, Williams, Mitchell, Gay, Yancey, Bell, Whitehurst, Kene, Pierce, Woody, Grant, Buller and others too numerous to mention—And Whoops! Here is the Band and our good cheer leaders.

Whew! What a busy day this has been. It's been quite some time since I have felt quite so tired.

We imagine these were the remarks or some similar of Dean Williams when he finished taking movie reels of the old and new stars of State Normal on Thanksgiving Day.

THE Y. M. C. A.

There is no association the world over, that is more helpful and entertaining to the youth.

Every young man and woman should attend these meetings with the intention of gaining some bit of helpful information.

Let us as the student body of State Normal make a New Year's resolution—that is resolve to help the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A., of our campus to become stronger and more helpful.

President, Elbert Hankins; Secretary, Gladys Powell; Sponsor, James Clark.
