

ALUMNI CONTRIBUTIONS (cont.)

TOTAL $ 359.01

EDITORIAL

We have just read Rackham Holt's biography of George Washington Carver. We urge the reading of it upon all of you. Never has there been a more sympathetic treatment of a great American Negro. Never perhaps has there been so great an American Negro as Carver.

continued from page 2

The events get under way on May 7, when the May Festival will be held under the direction of Mrs. Carolina Johnson. The May Festival is a new and interesting feature, serving both as May Day program and as introduction to the closing activities. Beginning on May 21 and running through May 26, which is commencement day, will come the following events: May 21, the Music Festival, with Miss Evelyn Johnson in charge; May 22, the Junior class's reception to the Seniors; May 23, the Baccalaureate sermon, which will be delivered by Dr. John Holloman; May 24, Class day, followed by the Senior play in the evening; May 25, Alumni Day, and May 26, Commencement, the address for which will be delivered by Dr. J. Henry Highsmith, Director of Division of Instructional Service of the State Department of Education.

BUY BONDS