By "Doc" Crumm

Although the basketball season is over, pleasant memories will linger with you in regards to the 1950-51 Elizabeth City State Teachers College Basketball Team. Throughout the season I have seen the boys practice hard nightly, post victories, and be the vanquished. I think that they played wonderful ball, and at the same time proved that one can be an athlete, a scholar, and a gentleman at the same time. Praises should also go to Coach Housen. He moulded a group of freshmen and sophomores into a smooth functioning outfit. "A coach is as great as his players and vice versa." Three cheers for a good team.

The diamond dust is blowing and seen recently on the athletic field were James Wilkes, James Hoggard, Charles Enoch, Robert Booth, Robert Scott, Atlas Davis, Palmas Jerald, Earl Thomas, Reddick, Red Thompson, Ake Bowe, Winton Brown, Blimp Camen, Randolph Tootle, J. C. Williams, and many others.

According to Coach Williams, a tentative schedule has already been made up. (unknown just now) . . . Bill Garrett, the Negro cage star for Indiana University, made all Big-Ten, and the second the second team of the Associated Press for All-American Honors . . . Rafael Noble is the latest Negro baseballer to be added to the New York Giants roster. Already the Giants had Hank Thompson and Monte Irvin . . . Spring is here. Materials for our outdoor activity will go up soon . . . Latest dope about Ezzard Charles is that the champ is married. Wait for news to break either way . . . Not trying to get back to basketball, but do you realize that Livingstone was the most impressive and improved ball club in the Collegiate tourney? Massey and McDonald were the bulwarks and led Livingstone to the third spot . . . 'Tis better to have won and lost than never to have played at all. (Knowledge is based on past experience) Be Springish . . .

VISUAL EDUCATION

On Thursday, March 29, Miss E. D. Elliott's morning Biology class made a field trip on the college campus and surrounding areas. The primary purpose of was to study flower classification and development. The students on the trip expressed their interest and asked for more such trips. I am sure everyone learned something and appreciated this phase of practical Biology.

FAYETTEVILLE CROWNED CONFERENCE CHAMPS;

Gunning all of the way, the Fayetteville "Broncos" defeated Elizabeth City 80-74 to win the fourth annual E.I.A.C. Basketball tournament. In the opening round, Fayetteville drew a bye, and walloped Miner College in the semi-finals to reach the finals. Elizabeth City also drew a first round bye and defeated Livingstone in an overtime period in the semi-finals to gain the right to meet Fayetteville.

Coach Housen's boys fought gallantly, but could never overcome the lead of the victors. What hurt Elizabeth City most was "tap-ins" by Captain Costen, Donnell Rogers, and Wayne. All three of these lads are well over six feet. Randolph Tootle scored 31 points to take scoring honors for Elizabeth City.

Throughout the game team work was displayed by both teams with timely passes and dazzling shots.

THE FEMININE ANGLE

Attention Coeds! Everything serves a purpose, and Spring's purpose is to give you a chance to step into your gay colors, straw hats, white shoes and light weight jeans. However, the major purpose is to give you a chance to release some of your pent-up energy. As an old adage goes, Opportunity knocks but once, so take advantage of Spring while it is here.

Girls! let's have some profitable ways of releasing our energy. How about some competitive soft ball, volleyball, and other outdoor sports?

The thrilling, as well as victorious girls basketball season which has just ended, provides a wealth of inspiration. Three victories out of five games provide evidence that we have talent in our midst. Hidden talent does no one any good, so, come on girls and exhibit your talent, show the people how versatile women can be. Be a lady in all respects, exhibit your well rounded personalities. Show that a bat on your hand in the afternoon does not diminish your grace on the dance floor in the evening. It is our chance to get into the 'limelight' which the men have monopolized for so long. We are not glad that they are being called to the army and other forms of service, but however, we wish to extend to them our best wishes of luck and success and a speedy return.

AHOSKIE WINS OVER WINTON FOR SECOND STRAIGHT INVITATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Led by Captain Porter and O. McNeil of R. L. Vann High School won the Second Interscholastic Invitational Tournament held here March 22, 23 and 24 by defeating C. S. Brown High of Winton 60-43. The victors grabbed an early lead and coasted on to victory. Captain Bowser took scoring honors for the losers with 25 points. Last year R. L. Vann won the same honor.

Bi-State Attraction

As an added feature, a double elimination tournament between Booker Washington and Norcom High of Virginia, and Garysburg High and Smithfield High of North Carolina. Booker Washington and Norcom met in the final—the former winning by a score of 37-26.

VERNON RANDALL

"Rocky" was graduated from Saint Joseph Catholic School, Norfolk, Virginia, in 1949. His unassuming air has distinguished him as a gentleman by many.

Following graduation, Randall registered at State Teachers College. Since his stay here, he is a letterman in basketball and football. Other activities around the campus in which he participates are the Usher's Guild and the Sigma Rho Sigma Honorary Club. All sports are his hobbies. In 1950-51, Randall made the All-E.I.A.C. football team as an end. Being 19 years of age, standing 5 feet-11½ inches, and weighing 190 pounds, have proved to be an asset to Randall's success as an athlete.

JOHN BYNUM

Bynum's home town is Portsmouth, Virginia. He is 19 years of age, 5 feet-10 inches, and weighs 165 pounds. This is his second year as a cager for State Teachers College. His smooth tactics have boosted S.T.C. over many bumps. Bynum is quiet, conservative, and a good student. Although he does not gun much, his defensive work has been outstanding. Offensively, Bynum's job is to start the fast break from out of bounds if this situation presents itself. His 5 feet-10 inches frame has the reach of a six-footer. You have seen him jump, dribble, sweep backboards, set up plays, etc. Watch Bynum's behavior, and you will see a "typical college student." Bynum was graduated from Douglas Park High School in 1948.

SANTIAGO BURRELL

Burrell has been tabbed "Dago" because of facial features. Like Bynum, Burrell is not a consistent shooter, but in spots he has pulled your Alma Mater through. During the early part of the season, the competition was very keen for the guard slots, but his modesty, shooting, and good hustle won him a starting birth on Coach Housen's five. "Dago" is 18 years of age, 6 feet-1 inch, and weighs 176 pounds. If Uncle Sam does not interrupt Burrell's schooling, you will see the modest and shy kid gunning in State Teachers College's Gymnasium. Burrell finished Saint Joseph Catholic School, Norfolk, Virginia, in 1950.

THEODORE BROWN

Ted Brown is the gay, young man from Spring Hope, North Carolina, who selected State Teachers College as his Alma Mater this year. He is 22 years of age, weighs 175 pounds, and is 6 feet-1 inch tall. Coach Housen has used him only in spots this season but predicts a great future for Brown.

During the summer months, he visits his parents in Orange, New Jersey. Next to sports, Brown likes to collect pipes. Drop by his room sometime and you will see a good collection.

ATLAS DAVIS

Davis is 24 years of age, stands 5 feet-8 inches, and weighs 165 pounds. While attending Nash County High School, his team won the county championship in 1944-45. Later in 1945, he was called into the Army where he remained for two years and six months. While in the Army, Davis played on a championship team which toured Germany, Italy, and Austria. Entering State Teachers College in 1949, he won a starting berth with the basketball team, and a substitute full-back on the gridiron.

During the summer, he plays baseball with the Rocy Mount All-Stars. This is his second year at State Teachers College, and here is hoping that next year will be even better for three-sport star.
