

MRS. E. A. EATON

A New Book of Verse
By Mrs. E. A. Eaton

"Out of My Dreams" is a delightful book of verse written by Mrs. Estelle A. Eaton, Department of Education, Elizabeth City State Teachers College. It has been recently published by the Christopher Publishing House of Boston, Mass.

The writer's feelings about her own experiences have been beautifully expressed in this volume of poems which are divided into eight groups. According to the critics, the poems have been highly praised, and it is believed that everyone will find them readable and enjoyable.

Mrs. Eaton is a native of Winston-Salem, N. C. She received her B.S. degree from Winston-Salem Teachers College; the M.A. degree from Columbia; and has also studied at the University of Southern California and the University of Minnesota. Experience as teacher and supervisor and extensive travel have been outstanding accomplishments of the author.

Women's Glee Club

Among the various extra-curricular organizations on the campus, the Women's Glee Club ranks high. During the past year the young ladies have enjoyed rehearsing and performing, not only for the college family but for the community as well.

The Women's Glee Club, composed of twenty-one members, is directed by Miss E. L. Davis of the College Music Department. This organization is a great aid in developing cooperation and dependability among singers. It also serves as a means of recreation after a tiresome day in class.

During the past year the Glee Club performed for Thanksgiving vesper service, Christmas breakfast, a Religious Emphasis assembly, High School Senior Day and the Coronation Ball. It has also performed at St. Stephens Baptist Church and the Antioch Presbyterian Church in the city.

The officers of the Glee Club are: Varah Wallace, president, '61; Evelyn Byrd, secretary, '60; Carolyn Branch, assistant secretary, '61; Donna Congleton, librarian, '61; Louise Hoffer, assistant librarian and reporter, '60; Yvonne Hare, treasurer, '60. Other members are Beatrice Deloatch, Mary Garrison, Dathering Johnson, Mary Little, Minnie Lowe, Helen Midgette, Shirley Miller, Mary Moore, Joyce Respass, Flonia Selby, Desadra Skinner, Ellen Simms, Shirley Whitaker, Rosa Turnage and Ethel Yelity.

The Glee Club anticipates presenting an assembly program in May. It also plans to give, on Honors Day, an emblem to a young lady who has contributed most to the club through loyalty, cooperation and ability to lead.

Be thus familiar but by no means vulgar;
The friends thou hast and their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel.

—Shakespeare (Hamlet)

Women's Federation
Annual Meet at STC

The Northeastern Federation of Women's Clubs held its fourth annual meeting at the Elizabeth City State Teachers College on April 11.

An interesting program including a Coffee Hour; a general session featuring special music by the College Choir and Mrs. Edith Mackey Everett; a panel discussion on "Federated Women meeting the Challenge of the Space Age" by outstanding women of the Federation; and a skit by the Youth Clubs of Elizabeth City was held in Moore Hall in the morning. Then followed a campus tour and luncheon in the College Dining Hall. In the afternoon the business session was held in Lester Science Hall.

The meeting brought together a number of women interested in stimulating the fellowship of women of the state and deeply concerned about meeting the challenge of the times.

Youth groups were entertained at the Cale Street Youth Center.

Eight Students Receive
Red Cross Certificates

The second quarter made a progressive movement on our campus, when eight students registered for the course in Red Cross Home Nursing. The Red Cross provided manuals, materials and disaster training.

There are needs for home nurses who are qualified and willing to give service to those who need it during disastrous emergencies.

Students who received certificates are shown (seated): Instructor, Mrs. G. L. Smith, Emma W. Daniel, Sara Heckstall, Barbara Burke and an instructor, Mrs. K. S. Wamack. Back row: Vivian Eason, Queen Wilson, Mamie P. Arrington and Roda Hodges. Josephine Barnhill is not shown.

Thrilling Drama

(Continued from Page 1)

The climax of the play occurred when Mr. Foster, a bank official visited the Herries' mansion several years later for a business appointment. While in the house alone, he learned from Miss Herries the diabolical plot that had kept her a prisoner in her own home. The story ended with the rescue of Miss Herries by the police.

In the leading roles were Lula Roberts as Miss Herries and George Kitchen as Henry Abbott. Other characters in the drama were: Mr. Foster, Robert Wynn; Lucy Weston, Barbara Burke; Rose, Mary Burke; Phyllis Glanning, Ida Pearl Powell; Peter Santard, Ralph Glover; Ada, Alice Pope; Doctor, Nathaniel Moore; Mr. Edwards, Hezekiah Cooper; Mrs. Edwards, Christine Artis; Aggie Edwards, Helen Johnson, and Gustav Rosenberg, James Swimpson.

Rules For a Successful Cosmetologist

1. Be able to carry on a good conversation
2. Be neat
3. Be punctual
4. Be honest
5. Avoid overwork
6. Do work willingly and efficiently

Faculty Wives and Women's Club Give Variety Talent Show

On April 3, in Moore Auditorium, the Faculty Wives and Women's Club held the audience spellbound as they demonstrated their admirable talents.

Mr. Wamack was the first to cast a spell over the audience with an instrumental solo on the organ, "Sweet and Low". Of course, the ladies were not to be outdone, as was noticed by appearance of a chorus composed of Miss Burgess, Mrs. Caldwell, Miss G. Moore, Mrs. Rae Williams, Mrs. E. Foxx and Mrs. G. Smith.

There were other solos, duets and monologues as the talent show progressed. Dean Neyland recited a monologue; Miss Johnson and Miss Davis played a duet on the piano and the organ; and Mrs. Vaughn seemed inspired as she did a dance solo.

Other participants were Miss D. Paschall, Miss Meredith, Miss Lane, Miss Davis, Mrs. Royall and Mr. Gregory.

Dramatic Club Expresses Appreciation

Realizing that the producing of a play is not an easy task for a director, the members of the Dramatic Club would like to express appreciation to Mrs. J. M. Hoffler, for her time and effort, day and night, to make "Kind Lady" by Edward Chodorov a success.

Take another look at your library... it is your key to knowledge, travel, adventure and a fuller life.

WITH THE GREEKS

AKM at Orangeburg

Alpha Kappa Chapter of Alpha Mu Honor Society was fortunate enough through the aid of various organizations and individuals of the college to send two students to its National Convention which was held at South Carolina State College in Orangeburg, S. C. Those delegates were Katrina Johnson from Enfield, N. C., and Naomi Cousin Johnson from Roxboro, N. C. Dr. W. N. Ridley, our college president, also national president of Alpha Kappa Mu, and Mrs. E. A. Eaton, the chapter advisor, also attended the convention.

Upon returning from the convention, the chapter entertained the faculty and students by taking them on an imaginary trip to the convention as the two delegates related the many educational experiences encountered on their trip. Katrina pointed out some of the significant statements from each address made at the convention by very outstanding personalities. She also showed how the convention theme, "Accent On Excellence", was made quite explicit through the many addresses and panels. Naomi showed the social aspects of the convention while Lois Parker, another member of the chapter, read the scripture and offered prayer.

Nine Initiated Into Pyramid Club

Delta Chi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has initiated nine talented, charming and outstanding young ladies from the college campus into the Pyramid Club. The sorors are very happy to welcome these students into the Pyramid branch of the sorority, and they believe that these young ladies will be a definite asset to the organization because of their distinct leadership and fellowship characteristics.

Those pledges are Helen Boone Gatesville, N. C.; Ruby Brown, Williamston, N. C.; Helen Foye, Selma, N. C.; Joyce Hoffler, Gatesville, N. C.; Gladys Johnson, Scotland, Neck, N. C.; Mary Mizelle, Robersonville, N. C.; Pretlo Solice, Mt. Olive, N. C.; Barbara Vaughn, Emporia, Va., and Joyce Welch, Weldon, N. C.

Dr. R. B. Martin Speaks
At Palm Sun. Vespers

The Thalia Sorosis Club sponsored its annual Palm Sunday Vesper service on March 22. The address was given by Dr. R. B. Martin, Rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Norfolk, Virginia. The topic for his address was "Love That Can Be Hurt". He explained the type of love people should possess, which is the kind that will let them hurt for something which is worthwhile.

The speaker was introduced by Barbara Ransom, and beautiful Palm Sunday hymns were sung.

The program was immediately followed by a lovely buffet supper served in the Home Economics department in Williams Hall.

Zetas Sponsor
Fourth Annual Cinderella Ball

The fourth annual Cinderella Ball sponsored by the Delta Pi Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, was held in the college gymnasium on March 20, 1959. Twenty Cinderellas participated in the program.

The purpose of the Cinderella Ball was to introduce to society eligible young ladies, to assist in the scholarship fund, and also to carry out the idea of "Finer Womanhood."

Parents, chapter members and reviewing guests were present for the coronation of "Miss Cinderella of 1959", who was Miss Joyce Joyner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Joyner of Edenton, North Carolina. The second place was won by Miss Juanita Woodhouse of Elizabeth City.

Other Cinderellas were Ann D. Anthony, Barbara Chesson, Armazo Cooper, Joan Craig, Delores Harvey, Gloria L. Hoggard, Helen J. Johnson, Elois Jordan, Hilda Jordan, Sylvia Manley, Lynda Morris, Hilda Privott, Gertie Smith, Earnestine Sutton, Dorothy M. Watson, Joyce Welch, Metoka Welch, and Queen Williams.

An official welcome was extended by Mr. Timothy Wamack.

Miss Gladys L. Ruffin, mistress of ceremonies, was assisted by Mr. Lawrence Harrison, a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

The Cinderella Ball Waltz by Cinderellas and marshals was of great entertainment. Dancing by Greeks, Cinderellas, marshals and guests was enjoyed by all.

Music was furnished by John L. Turner and his orchestra. Ushers were members of the Archonian Club of Alpha Gamma Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, Elizabeth City State Teachers College.

Aspiring Future Zetas

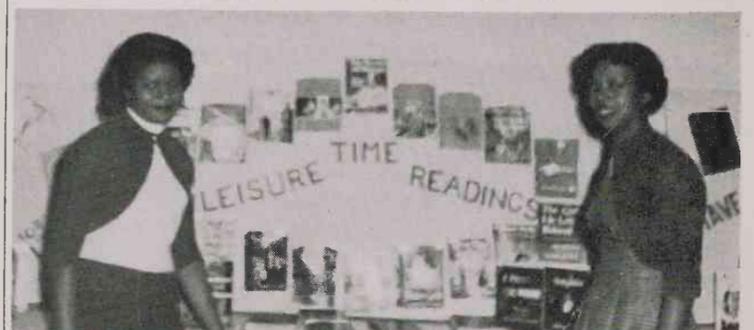

Recently, the Alpha Gamma Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority inducted into the Archonian Club four promising young ladies. They are: Ella Roberts, Emma Daniels, Aileen Modlin, and Jean Perry.

These young ladies are striving to uphold the standards of "Finer Womanhood", our main objective. The sorority is very happy to have them become affiliated. It is hoped that they will maintain, at all times, those favorable traits that contribute to the higher standards of the organization.

Thalia Sorosis Club Inducts
Twenty Young Ladies

The Thalia Sorosis Club inducted twenty persons into the club on April 20. These were young ladies who were interested and who possess splendid character.

They are Gondola Banks, Velma Barclift, Evelyn Byrd, Pauline Carney, Margaret Golden, Mauricia Grandy, Beverly Howard, Lillian James, Katherine Johnson, Trumilla Johnson, Gretha Knight, Mary Little, Barbara Paige, Jeanette Parker, Ella Roberts, Elsie Simmons, Pretlo Solice, Anita Walston and Joyce Welch.

Miss Katrina Johnson and Mrs. Naomi C. Johnson are shown here with their library display. It featured a number of books to remind students that there are books that are significant for Leisure Time Reading. Members not shown are Miss Helen Kates and Miss Lois Parker.