Dr. E. B. Winston Speaks to SNEA at Monthly Meeting

Ask Evaluation of CREFAL Programs

The P. W. Moore Chapter of the SNEA held its monthly meeting in Moore Hall recreational room, with Dr. E. B. Winston who was introduced by Minnie Lowe is director of the Reading Clinic and member of the English Department. She is also connected with the program of the International Division of Education. She was invited to join a group of professors from the University of Michigan to go to Mexico last summer.

Dr. Winston gave highlights on the training of teachers at CREFAL, (Central Regional Fundamental Education Center for Latin American peoples)

CREFAL, located at Patzcuaro, Mexico, is the Fundamental educational program sponsored by UNESCO for the training of adults in Literacy, Health Education, Music, Art, Home life, Agricultural life, and other programs for economic and cultural improvement.

Thanksgiving Vesper Service Sponsored By The Y. M. C. A.

Thanksgiving Vesper Service sponsored by the college Young Men's Christian Association was held in Moore Hall Auditorium on November 22, at 6:00 P.M.

The service began with the opening song entitled "Come Ye Thankful People Come" followed by the scriptural reading and prayer.

Reverend H. L. Mitchell, a graduate of Shaw University and pastor of New Baptist Church in Gatesville, North Carolina, was the guest speaker. He gave a very impressive message on "What shall I render to God for all his benefits towards me?" In this message he stated three main points to take into consideration: (1) One should have an active spirit; (2) He should be a cheerful giver; (3) He should have a Christian Spirit.

Reverend H. L. Mitchell's inspiring message brought joy at the time of Thanksgiving.

AKA's Give House To House Party

In keeping with a recent tradition, the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority gave a House-to-House Party on November 21, for a group of young freshman ladies and the Ivy Leaf Club.

The group were served refreshments at each house. At the first house the appetizer was served, and the meal continued in sequence until the last stop, where dessert was served.

There was an informal introduction at each house. The group sang songs at some of the houses, and the guest book was signed by the young ladies.

It was a wonderful Saturday afternoon enjoyed by the entire group.

Science Research Associate Consultant Visits Reading Clinic

Mr. Hannis Latham, Staff Associate of the Science Research Associates, nationwide educational research and service association, was a recent visitor in the Elizabeth City State Teachers College Reading Clinic.

Latham spent the day in group and individual work conferences with students, faculty and administrative officers representing several areas of the college program.

Opportunity was provided for demonstration of various types of materials used in Reading programs sponsored by the Science Research Associates throughout the country.

The Multi-Level Reading Development program including reading selections with word study from the elementary grades through senior high school met with particular appeal to students in Language Arts methods courses as well as faculty representatives in the English and Education areas.

Reading Rate Builders designed to increase speed and comprehension in reading, the Student Record Book which motivates student self evaluation, as well as recommended methods of study for which improved reading skills are essential were displayed and discussed.

WITH THE GREEKS

Six Initiated

Six young ladies were initiated on December 12 into Delta Theta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

These young ladies possess many fine qualities and are very active on campus. Among the group are members of the Choir, the Dramatics Club, the Student Council, Dormitory Council, Junior Counselors Staff, Newsletter, and the Thalia Sorosis Club.

Newly initiated were: Donna Bell Congleton, Everetts, N. C.; Annie Ruth Hocutt, Ahoskie, N. C.; Helen Constance Johnson, Seaboard, N. C.; Iva Jane Lennon, Evergreen, N. C.; Mary Hester Puryear, Virginia, Va.; and Evelyn Skinner Simmons, Elizabeth City, N. C.

Immediately following the ceremony, the neophytes were guests of Delta Theta Chapter for a delightful banquet at the beautiful home of Mrs. Georgia H. Morgan.

Candlelight Hour In The Lighthouse

With an autumn setting of a very large pumpkin surrounded by corn and fruit, along with soft lights and beautiful music, a Candlelight Hour was held in the Lighthouse on November 25.

Clarence Biggs introduced Lenora Slade, Chairman of the Fine Arts Committee, and then presented President W. N. Ridley who had initiated the Lighthouse program.

"This is a good time for giving thanks for many blessings," said the President, as he reminded the students and faculty of the many things for which people should be thankful. As he recognized the graduates, who were about to leave the campus, he said, "We should give thanks for these graduates."

Music could be heard in the background as students read the Thanksgiving Proclamation and prayers. Those participating were Don Morgan, Alice Myrick, Lula Roberts, Lenora Slade, and Lenora Slade. The Thanksgiving Hour was very enlightening and inspiring.

Beta Zeta Chapter of APA Inducts New Member

Beta Zeta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity inducted into Phi Alpha, William Henry Hager during probation week, December 5-12. William Hager is a junior. He is a dynamic figure on the varsity basketball team as well as the choir and the track team.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Hager as he successfully crossed the burning sands.

Adron Jones Crosses Hot Sands To Omega

The Lambda Gamma Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. extended open arms to Adron Jones on December 12, as he crossed the burning sand to Omega Land.

Jones is a sophomore majoring in Elementary Education and is a native of Winton, North Carolina. He is a member of the Student Council and the Ushers Guild.

Pyramid Club Sponsors Christmas Benefit Dance

In keeping with the Christmas spirit, the Pyramid Club of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., sponsored a benefit dance in the Lighthouse on December 12. A toy or an article of clothing was the admission to the dance.

Each year a benefit dance is given by the Pyramid Club for needy families of the community. The dance this year was a success as was shown by the many articles collected by the organization. A stick of candy attractively wrapped in gay Christmas colors was pinned on each person as he entered the dance.

Glady Johnson, president of the Pyramid Club, and other members are Helen Boone, Rubye Brown, Joyce Hoffer, Mary Mizelle, Pretto Solice, Barbara Vaughn, and Joyce Welch.

Mr. Jones, Registrar Addresses Assembly

Mr. Taylor Jones, Registrar at Elizabeth City State Teachers College, spoke recently during an assembly on the subject "Privileges and Responsibilities, as they pertain to College Students."

"Education used to be a thing for the privileged class, but today education is open to anyone who is willing to work," said Mr. Jones.

He emphasized the great advantage of a college education. The culture included in the many activities on a college campus was spoken of, as he said that students should take advantage of the bodies of knowledge in which their parents have invested their money. Mr. Jones also stressed the point that many students have the ability, but lack the desire to participate in many campus activities that could use their skills.

Thelma Dillahaun, a sophomore, read the scripture and Margaret Russell, also a sophomore, introduced the speaker.

Mother: Mary, you were naughty last night. Did you do as I told you and talk to God about it?

Mr. Jones: Well-I, Mr. God wasn't home, but I told Mrs. God and it's all over heaven by now.

Many of the students added more warmth and color to the building by beautifying their own rooms and doors with attractive decorations.
