

THE 1963 VIKINGS SQUAD

Panthers Blank Vikings

The Viking played one of their best defensive games of the season October 12 and led in total offense 167 yards to 154 for Virginia Union University, but still were unable to win as they were blanked 13-0.

The penalties against the Vikings nullified many of their fine drives. On numerous occasions throughout the game, the Vikings penetrated deeply into the Panther's territory, but were unable to reach pay dirt.

The Vikings demonstrated some of the hallmarks of a defensive minded football team as they limited the Panthers to 106 yards rushing and only 3 completions out of 8 passes. The gigantic forward wall being led by bruising Bobby Riley and co-captain Thuris Little, both all-C.I.A.A. candidates, leaked through the Panther's interior line to spill the Panthers for considerable losses on numerous occasions. Though playing one of their best games of the season, the Vikings were still unable to ring the victory bell as their record became 1-3 for the season.

First Period: The Vikings kicked to the Panthers. Jones Davis, Union's speedy halfback, made a fine run-back. With the help of four successive penalties against the Vikings, the Panthers scored from the 12 yard line. The conversion attempt failed.

Second Period: The second period was strictly a defensive battle as neither team could get a scoring threat started.

Halftime Score: Viking 0-Panthers 6.

Third Period: The defensive battle continued through the 3rd period and was marked by a hard charging line and excellent pass defense on the part of the Vikings. The Vikings' offensive game caught fire in this period. With the little field general, Earl Francis, taking to the air and completing passes to Eugene Snipes, T. Chadwick, and Argle Whitfield, the Viking penetrated deeply into Panthers territory before being stopped by numerous penalties.

Fourth Period: Percy Watson showed some superb running in a losing cause and was the workhorse of the Vikings' attack throughout the game. The second Panther touchdown was set up when a Pearson aerial was intercepted by the Panthers. Two plays later the Panthers scored from the 10 yard line to climax the scoring and the game. The conversion attempt was good.

Final Score: Panthers 13-Vikings 0
Outstanding Vikings: B. Riley, Robertson, Thuris Little, McCoy, Robertson, Littlejohn, Pearson, L. Williams, Pugh, Francis, and Williams.

Vikings Defeated by Rams, 26-6

The Vikings dominated the first-half play before being defeated 26-6 by the Rams of Winston-Salem State College, October 5. The Rams staged a come-back from a 6-0 deficit early in the 2nd half with heads up football in a tense and thrill-packed game at college park for the victory.

As the game progressed, the Rams seemed to have gained momentum after scoring for the first time early in the 3rd period. The outcome of the game was determined by two blocked punts by the Rams which resulted in two Rams touchdowns.

The Vikings played magnificently in the first half of the game and equally as well in the 2nd half, but the breaks of the game did not fall our way.

Our chance of upsetting the Rams was hampered somewhat because of the loss of many key players out of the Viking line-up, due to injuries.

A play-by-play description of the Viking-Rams game was transmitted back to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, via Larry Williams of radio station WAAA of that city.

First period: The Vikings, Jackson, kicked to the Rams. The ball was returned to the 30 yard line on the run-back. Neither team could get an offense started and the period ended scoreless.

Second period: The Vikings scored on the passing of Francis and Pearson to Snipes, the running of Watson, and the offensive line play of the Vikings' forward wall. After penetrating to the Rams' 1 yard line, Watson scored on a dive over right tackle.

Halftime score: Vikings-6 Rams-0.

Halftime activities: If one likes cha-cha, I am quite sure that they found the P. W. Moore High School band most enjoyable. The Vikings marching band also performed and thrilled the crowd with great music and dazzling steps. John Scott is P. W. Moore bandmaster; William H. Ryder conducts the ECSC aggregation.

Third period: The Rams kicked to Viking. After the ball changed hands, the Rams scored on a 1 yard plunge. The conversion attempt failed.

Fourth period: Bolstering a strong offensive and defensive game, the Rams broke the game wide open with heads-up football. The Rams' defensive line leaked through to block two Viking punts, all of which resulted in Ram touchdowns. Both conversion attempts failed. The final scoring was wrapped up on a one yard plunge by the Ram quarterback. The conversion attempt failed.

Final score: Rams—26 Vikings—6.
Outstanding Vikings: Riley, Little, McCoy, Pearson, Pugh, Snipes, Whitfield, Jackson, Williams, Francis, Watson, Harris and Robertson.

Bears "Wallop" Vikings in Thriller

The Shaw University "Bears" killed a last minute Viking bid for a victory when Walton intercepted an aerial from Francis to Watson with only minutes remaining in the game. The Bears were downed 6-0 at halftime, but came back in the third period to score all of their points and wrap up a 13-8 victory, October 19.

The Bears took advantage of the Vikings fumbles and capitalized on a pass interception which stopped a fine Vikings drive. The Vikings played excellent football throughout the first half of the game, but could not get their offense moving in the second half.

Argle Whitfield looked exceptionally well in making spectacular pass interceptions. Whitfield, an early season pass receiving leader, and Percy Watson were the Vikings' offensive standouts.

First Period: The Bears, Williams kicked to the Vikings. Watson returned the kickoff. The E. C. Vikings were unable to penetrate the Bears territory during the first period. The Bears marched deep into Viking territory after taking over on about the 30 yard line.

Second Period: The Vikings scored the first touchdown of the game on a pass play from Francis to Chadwick. The conversion attempt failed.

Halftime Score: Vikings 6; Bears 0. During the halftime, the E. C. marching band entertained the fans with superb drills.

Third Period: Vikings, J. T. Jackson kicked to the Bears to commence the third period. Later during the period, the Bears recovered a fumble by Snyder and scored on a pass play to Powell. The conversion by Scott was good. The Bears, second and final score was made on a pichout to King. The conversion attempt failed.

Fourth Period: The Vikings held the Bears scoreless and managed to record two points on a touchback by Pugh.

Final Score: Bears 13; Vikings 8
