

Basketball: Pre-Season Warm-Up

The 1963-64 edition of the Vikings basketball team has begun pre-season drills. There are 20 athletes participating in the drills and 11 are holdovers from last season's team.

The Vikings will be led by the sharp-shooting 6' 6" Willie Francis, senior from Franklin, Virginia. The team is coached by Robert L. Vaughn. The coach's assistant is Spencer Mayfield, last season's co-captain and playmaker. The statistician is Ronald Coleman.

The team is hoping to improve its 9-10 record of last season which earned them a berth in the CIAA tournament at Winston-Salem State College.

Vikings Victorious; 6-0 Is Homecoming Tally

The Vikings burned and buried the Broncos of Fayetteville State College in a 6-0 defeat. This game ended the season for the Vikings. Their record for the season is 3 wins and 5 losses. The Broncos are 1-6 for the season.

Each team played a tight defensive game, but the Vikings defense proved to be the better of the two. The Broncos met a stone wall after having marched from the 15 yard-line of the Vikings to the 1 yard-line. Broncos fumbled and Odell Harris recovered for the Vikings.

Neither team could get a strong offense moving in the first half, but the Vikings' offense started clicking in the second half.

Earl Francis, Al Pearson, and Elwood Williams tasted their last gridiron dust as brave Vikings. They have done a tremendous job in a number of games on defense and offense.

First Period: The Vikings' Jackson kicked to the Broncos. The ball was run back to the 20 yard line. The first period was mostly a defensive period; however, the Broncos threatened to score on a fumble by Watson in Viking territory.

Second Period: Watson ran brilliantly on a trap play from the Vikings 20 yard line, but was called back because of a penalty.

Halftime Score: Vikings 0; Broncos 0.

Halftime Activities: "Miss State

College." Marcell Forbes, and her court were presented by President Ridley as was Fayetteville's "Miss Homecoming," Rosetta Rivers. Also presented to the fans was "Miss Alumni" (Mrs. Bernice Purdy Flood '50), with Alumni Association President Isaac Battle '46 doing the honors.

The Fayetteville State Band presented "Great Songs from Broadway" (Thomas B. Bacoe, director) and the Elizabeth City State Band also performed (William H. Ryder, director). Each group played its school's alma mater.

Third Period: The Broncos kicked to the Vikings. Watson returned the kickoff. The Broncos gained possession of the ball and moved from the 15 yard line in Vikings territory. Bronco fullback, Johnson met "crossfire" of Vikings at the line for no gain. The Mighty Vikings took over from the 1 yard line and marched 99 yards to score. An aerial from Francis to Chadwick, and the fancy running of fleetfooted Percy Watson set up the score. Francis confused the Broncos with a quarterback-keeper on fourth down and bulldozed his way in to score. The conversion attempt failed.

Fourth Period: Both teams threatened to score, but each time the defense proved to be more powerful than the offense.

Final Score: Vikings 6; Broncos 0.

Our Unsung Heroes

In each endeavor of life there are those who have to walk in the shadow of someone else, so it is with our football team. There are players on our team who are hardly known to our student body but are always out there giving their best.

- We would like to commend these for their spectacular play and we hope that it will be the main objective of each player to achieve both on the field and off the field.
- Alfred Pearson, a small package of dynamite.
- Leroy Williams, a tough custom-

St. Augustine's Defeats Us

The Falcons won their homecoming game by defeating the Vikings 20-14 in a tightly played CIAA contest.

The Vikings put together a strong offensive thrust in the late minutes of the first half to score. With just one minute remaining in the first half, Francis threw a seven-yard pass to Argie Whitfield for the score. The conversion attempt failed.

In the second half of the game the Falcons came back strong to score two touchdowns. The Falcons recovered a Viking fumble on the Falcons' 28 yard-line. After a series of plays, the Falcons marched to the two-yard line from where Falcons' quarterback Sinclair King scored. The conversion was good.

er on defense.

- Phil McCoy, big and tough.
- Ralph Faulk, quiet but rugged.
- Eugene Snipes, a freshman end, but a good one.
- Isaac Robertson, good blocker.
- Elwood Williams, a good line backer and a good tackler.
- William Streeter, a punishing runner.
- Jethro Williams, a sure tackler.
- Randy Johnson, a good utility man.
- Otha Snyder, big and fast at fullback.

The second Falcons touchdown came on an intercepted pass by Ozzie Duann, Falcons' captain who ran 45 yards to score. The conversion was good and the score stood at 14-6 Falcons.

In the final quarter the Vikings threatened many times to score, but were stopped by the Falcons' strong defensive line.

The Falcons scored for the final time on a run by Mack after a 22 yard run by Jackson. The conversion failed.

The Vikings scored in the last quarter with about two minutes remaining on a Francis to Chadwick pass connection. The conversion was successful.

Final Score: Falcons 20, Vikings 14.

Whitfield Breaks C.I.A.A. Record

Argie Whitfield, a junior end on the Vikings football squad has broken the C.I.A.A. record of 31 pass receptions in a single season with 35 receptions and two touchdowns. The record was formerly held by Fletcher Snipes, former Viking end.

Whitfield is a rangy 6'3" and 220-pound end. One of his most noted assets is his excellent pair of hands. He can also move after catching a pass and is a good defensive player.

Look out for No. 82 next season.

Salute to Al Kelley

The Elizabeth City State College family saluted Alvin Kelly, who has for four years served as trainer of the football team. Kelly was saluted during the halftime ceremonies of the Vikings homecoming game.

Alvin Kelly, is a senior physical education major from Suffolk, Va. Since enrolling here in 1960, Kelly has done an excellent job in this capacity. The Compass Staff would like to congratulate Kelly for his loyal service and all of us wish him the best of luck in his endeavors.
