

Women's Weekend, April 30-May 2

Folk Singer Casey Anderson Is Star Attraction

Casey Anderson, folk singer and master showman, will appear on April 30, at 8 p.m., in Moore Hall Auditorium to begin the annual Women's Weekend activities.

Anderson is one of the most versatile young entertainers of our time. He has appeared on television, in concerts, night clubs, folk clubs, hokeynanny, folk festivals, fairs, radio shows, and at various colleges and universities including Harvard and the University of Oklahoma.

Casey's appearance on the campus is of special significance since his parents are members of the administrative staff. His father, Dr. William Anderson, is Dean of the College. His mother, Dr. Thelma Anderson, is one of the professors of psychology.

Panel
In addition to the planned entertainment, there will be a panel discussion on "The Contribution of Women in Politics and Civil Rights" which is to be held on Saturday, May 1, at 1 p.m.

Hewell Spaker
Dr. Grace L. Hewell, program coordinator of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington, D. C., will deliver an address on Sunday, May 2, at 6 p.m. The address will conclude the Weekend's activities.

Barnelle Robinson, president of WGA, extends an invitation to the public to attend each event.

Music for the Young and Old Ends Week of Celebration

The North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Benjamin Swain, again made an appearance at ECSC. The concert given on Sunday, April 11, brought the celebration of Fine Arts Festival Week to a close.

The group gave its first performance on Friday, April 9, for the benefit of the younger music lovers. It was a matinee held in Williams Hall. Young people from twelve different schools were present with an attendance of more than 1500. The program included music of the programmatic form interesting to the younger group and songs which were sung along with the orchestra.

The Orchestra gave a concert for the College family and visitors on Sunday afternoon, April 11. An outstanding feature of the concert was the performance of the College Choir along with the Symphony Orchestra.

Music was played by the Orchestra alone during the first half of the program. Compositions included "Overture to the Opera Fidelio" by Beethoven and "The

Nursery School Entertains Parents

For the third consecutive year the Parents-Teachers meeting for the local Nursery School was a smashing success. The parents were able to learn the purpose of the nursery school and the accomplishments of their children.

George Johnson, a college student spoke to the parents on the topic, "The Nursery School—A Laboratory Experience." Dr. Ben Fountain, superintendent of the public schools in Elizabeth City, spoke on "The Importance of Pre-School Education." His talk was the highlight of the program.

Dr. Rosaline Edwards, a faculty member, gave remarks. Mrs. L. Walker, instructor and director of the program, gave special recognition to the parents and guests.

To close out the program, there was a question and answer period. This gave the parents a chance to ask questions in regard to the advancement of their progeny.

Mrs. Walker stated that, "It was a very profitable occasion and we are looking forward to bigger and better things the coming year."

Second Marine Air Craft Wing

By Patrick H. Tyrance

The 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing Band of Cherry Point, North Carolina, was the guest of the Elizabeth City State College Sixth Annual Fine Arts Festival on April 10, at 8 p.m., in Moore Hall Auditorium.

Warrant Officer Robert N. Griswald conducted the band. The opening selection of the program was "Strike Up The Band," by George Gershwin. This show-type arrangement featured the ensemble playing of various sections within the band.

Other well known pieces of music included "She Loves You" by McCartney-Lennon and a novelty tune featuring a take-off on the Beatles.

"Dixieland Festival" arranged by Benj. Griffin, Virginia, is a tribute to Louis Armstrong. "Si, Louis Blues March," by W. C. Handy, featured Glen Miller's arrangement showing the "blues" in a march tempo.

"Sing, Sing, Sing," by Louis

Prims was the closing selection. This piece of music was adapted from Benny Goodman's famous arrangement.
