COMMENCEMENT

Spaulding Is Speaker

Asa T. Spaulding will be the speaker for the Commencement Exercises this year. A magna cum laude graduate of New York University (1930), Mr. Spaulding is recognized as an authority in the insurance field.

Mr. Spaulding won a Presidential Citation in 1946, "for unselfish devotion to the task of helping stabilize our economy." A member of the Institute of Mathematical Statistics and other professional organizations, he was also president of the Alumni Association of North Carolina College at Durham in 1944.

Author

A person of multiple talents, Mr. Spaulding has authored the following materials: Evolution of Life Insurance (1932); Partners in Business (1940); and Negro Insurance in the United States (1948). He has also written miscellaneous papers on various aspects of life insurance operations.

The College Family is extending a cordial invitation to all alumni, parents, friends, and the public in general, to attend the events highlighting our 74th Commencement.
