

ELECTION TIME

by Dempsey Bond, Jr.

IT IS ELECTION TIME on ECSC campus again. The campaigning by various candidates for certain positions has been on the move for a couple of days. Like any election on a college campus, the students at ECSC are deciding who they will support. These are some of the opinions of the students at ECSC about certain candidates.

There are those students who feel that the candidates for the Student Council presidency are all conservatives and not radical. They feel that there is no choice to really make, that either one will be or make just as good a president as the other one.

Then there are those who feel that Mr. Perry will make a good president because they feel that he is the only one who has really had close contact with the students and their problems, whereas, the other candidates are not even known by the students.

As far the candidates for Miss ECSC, everyone that I interviewed feels that Bessie Carr will take it by a landslide.

These are some of the opinions. However, this is the first round and no one can say exactly who will win, but everyone will know when election day is over. So go out and vote for the candidate of your choice.
