

(Listed below are opinions of various students on the candidates.)

HELEN JOHNSON
(MISS ECSC)

1. Not poised enough; very friendly.
2. She is neat, but not well-rounded.
3. She is not the type of person for MISS ECSC to me.
4. Helen will make a good MISS ECSC; needs to show more interest.
5. Could be a good MISS ECSC because beauty is not everything.
6. I believe this person is well-rounded and would make an excellent MISS ECSC.
7. The real beauty of MISS ECSC shows through the quality of her representation; therefore, I feel that she would make an excellent choice.
8. Very neat and intelligent.
9. She has a very pleasing personality; therefore, she would be well qualified to meet other college students.
10. I think she will be a good representative for this college.
11. Helen Johnson is very neat and has a pleasing personality.
12. No phony friend making, and would make a good MISS ECSC.

MELVIN POWELL
(President)

1. Too slow and quiet.
2. I think he possesses fine qualities for leadership.
3. I've never seen him do anything before, as far as judging his leadership ability.

RANDOLPH "ZEUS" LEE
(Vice-President)

1. He does not mingle with the students.
2. He is capable of being a good vice-president.
3. From my point of view, he has good qualities for becoming the vice-president.
4. He will make a good vice-president.
5. He is just the type of man that will make a good vice-president.
6. He fits nowhere but walking around campus--I've never heard him say many words.
7. I believe he has great leadership qualities.
8. I don't think that Randolph Lee is known enough to win as vice-president.
9. I have heard many bad remarks about Randolph Lee which will no doubt go against him.
