"GOD AND YOUTH" IS SUBJECT OF VESPER MESSAGE

by Alexander Jones

"God and Youth" was the inspiring subject of the initial Vesper Hour address delivered by the College Minister, Dr. R. Irving Boone.

After the rushed moments of registration and classroom adjustment, new students, as well as returning ones, assembled in Moore Hall Auditorium to meditate and to reflect upon that Divine Being who made these educational processes possible.

The sounds of the organ lingered in the hearts of the audience as Mr. Leonard Ballou, college organist, keyed "Morecambe" as the evening's prelude. The hymn tune was arranged by Mr. Ballou.

As the glorious voices of the College Choir echoed the strains of "Now is the Days of Youth", the attention of the audience was quickly focused on the purposes in Life as College Youth.

The speaker, in his message, "God and Youth," very vividly lifted from the Holy Scriptures the story of the youth who shared his "five fish and two barley loaves" with the multitude in order that God's purpose may have been fulfilled. This question was proposed to us as the new breed of youth: "What do we have to loan to God for His continued work?"

This was only the first Vesper; there are many more to follow. Are we as youth guilty of misplacing our values in life? Must we be compelled to worship, or do we feel it necessary to sacrifice just an hour twice a month, to renew our strength and rededicate our lives to the cause of Brotherhood.

THINK ABOUT IT

How you do is more important than what you do.

A fool and his money are always popular.

The Women's Government Association and the Junior Counselors sponsored a Charm Clinic on September 30 and October 1, 1966. The speaker for the Clinic was Mrs. De Vera Edwards of New Jersey.

She is working with Pharmico Incorporated of New Jersey. She is considered a charm consultant of the company. She is responsible for traveling to various colleges consulting young ladies on how to dress, walk, and how to use makeup. She also presents television shows for the company.

Prior to working with Pharmico Incorporated, she worked with Ebony Fashion Fair for five years, training models.

The attendance at this occasion was exceptionally good. Friday night Mrs. Edwards climaxed the show by giving prizes. This occasion proved to be very helpful to the young ladies at ECSC.

as a member of our faculty approximately 13 years, teaching Education and Psychology. She has established the E. M. Spellman Award here, to be given annually to the student who has made the most outstanding contribution during the year to our COMPASS.

In recent years Mrs. Spellman has been honored at a Testimonial Banquet, which was sponsored by the Civic Association of our city. In 1960, she was honored at a "This Is Your Life" program at which approximately 600 people were present. The program was given by the Men's Day Committee of her church and was a real surprise to her.

A good number of news articles have been written about Mrs. Spellman and many recent ones have given an account of her being appointed to Gov. Dan K. Moore's Beautification Committee. We would like to say "Congratulations" to her and we are sure that she will fulfill the duties of her new position in the finest of ways.

We are proud of Mrs. Spellman for the wonderfully inspiring reputation that she has built. We hope that through even greater assistance to her, she will be encouraged to carry her burning light of guidance higher and higher.

Look for the job with less present and more future.

Trouble comes in threes: present, past and future. Take each one at a time and you will overcome them all.
