

Marching Vikings Make Headlines

The Elizabeth City State College Marching Vikings has won great recognition for their performances in many of the high school homecomings in this district.

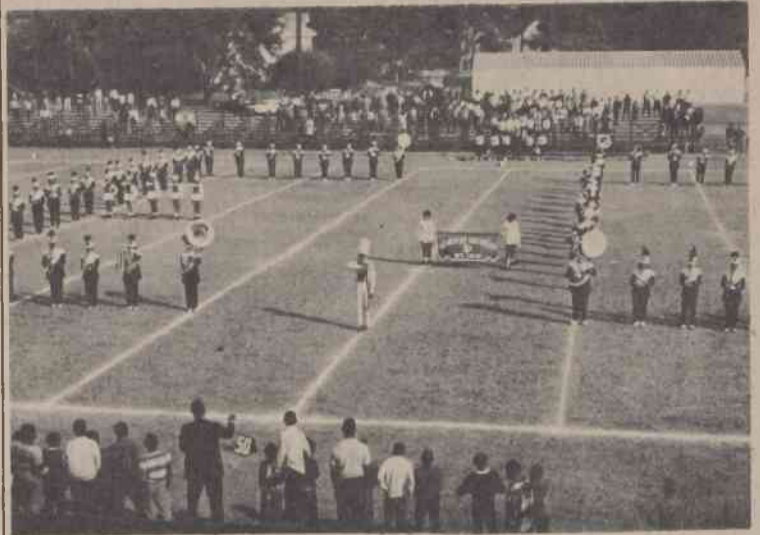

On Friday, October 6, the Vikings put on an excellent performance at D. F. Walker High School in Edenton, N. C. They were greatly praised for their high stepping and dancing to "Knock On Wood".

On October 13, the Marching Vikings participated in the homecoming activities of Southwestern High School in Windsor, N. C. They received great applause as they stepped to the music of "Them Bases."

Other homecoming activities on their schedule include: October 20-P. S. Jones High School, Washington; October 27-P. W. Moore High School, Elizabeth City; November 3-Washington County Union School, Roper.

The Marching "Vikings" Band of Elizabeth City State College entertains at their home game in Memorial Park at Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

While entertaining during home games the Marching "Vikings" take time out to salute their Alma-mater.

Drum Major, Wendell Hall, of the Marching "Vikings" entertains at a home game.

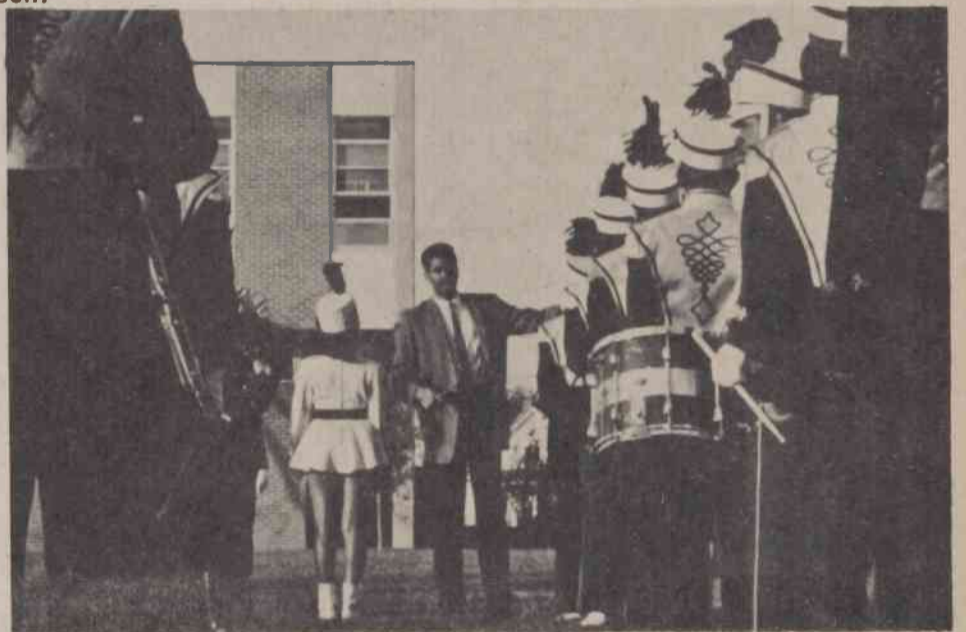

The Majorettes of the Marching "Vikings" Band of Elizabeth City State College are from left to right: Vickie D. Raynor, Whitman Bond, Bemell Ebron, Gloria H. Hall, and Linda Johnson.

Band Rocks to the Drums.

Mr. David Williams,
Band Director

Mr. James B. R. Hester, Assistant Band Director, gives band instructions.

The "Vikings" Band are in the swing.

The Rocking Tubas