Peace Corps

College Program

Grows

The officials of the Peace Corps and the State University of New York College at Brockport announced completion of arrangements for continuing and extending the unique Peace Corps/College Degree Program to admit a fourth group of candidates in June, 1970. The members of the first contingent completing the fifteen-month program which combines the upper division undergraduate education with Peace Corps preparation are now serving on bi-national educational development teams in the Dominican Republic; the second group is now serving in similar assignments in Peru and Honduras; the third group is now in the academic year phase of this joint project and is slated for overseas assignment in Latin America in August, 1970.

The candidates will be selected from the ranks of students in good standing at an accredited college who are completing their sophomore or junior year by June 1970. Those selected will be able to earn an A.B. or B.S. degree and be eligible for a Peace Corps assign-

Open Letter To Students

Fellow students of the United States:

Will you join with us in helping this nation to know that millions of college students are loyal, concerned, positive Americans who with dignity and courage commit themselves as individuals to FAITH in our great nation, its people, and its leader?

FAITH" movement calls upon students of all political persuasion to rededicate themselves to the principles which have made this the greatest country in the world. We DO NOT believe WAR to be the solution to the problems facing humanity! We recognize that our ment in one academic year flanked by two summers of fully subsidized and integrated academic courses and Peace Corps training. They are expected to major in mathematics or the sciences; those who have completed their junior year prior to entrance into the program have the opportunity for a double-major.

At the end of the second summer armed with the degree, a teaching license, in-depth cross cultural preparation and fluency in Spanish the graduates as Peace Corps Volunteers will be off on their Latin American assignment. As members of the staffs of teacher training institutions and/or consultants to secondary teachers of mathematics or science, they are important participants in the educational development efforts of their host countries. During their two year sojourn they have the opportunity to earn up to twelve semester hours graduate credit.

Peace Corps and college officials pointed out the several features which make this joint program unique including: academic credit for Peace Corps training, two fully subsidized summer sessions totalling thirty semester credit hours, in-depth Peace Corps training synchronized with the liberal arts and specialized professional preparation, individualized programming, opportunity for double majors and supervised overseas graduate work.

"This integrated program is based on our two fold conviction that (1) to combine the college and Peace Corps experiences is to make both more relevant and meaningful and the personal product more valuable (2) to provide much-needed skilled specialists -- mathematics and science teachers -- as Peace Corps Volunteers in Latin America is to make a significant contribution to all concerned," said President Albert Warren Brown, of the State University College at Brockport in announcing the extension of this unique partnership.

society has problems which must be solved, reforms which must be effected, improvements which must be made; therefore "PROJECT FAITH" calls upon individuals to commit themselves to contributing to the continued improvements of our society. As individuals reaffirm and rededicate themselves to this nation and its goals progress can continue.

We reject NEGATIVISM because NEGATIVISM offers no solutions! NEGATIVISM divides and destroys! NEGATIVISM depletes energy which should be expended in creative constructive endeavors!

Join with us by forming "PROJECT FAITH" groups on your campus. Any organization or individual who will carry this "torch" on your campus please contact immediately:

We, as American citizens, are aware of the need for reaffirmation of faith in our country. We accept the challenge to seek solutions to problems and urge others to reject the negativism that divides and destroys. While we recognize the right of dissent, we also recognize the need for our nation to have intimate of crisis one national voice. In response to the call of the President for a "voice" from the Silent Majority, we express the following:

(1) We endorse the principles of our government which have made this country the greatest in the world.

(2) We have faith in the ability of the American people to recognize problems and to seek solutions in a positive manner.

(3) We do earnestly feel that we must exercise an intelligent degree of faith and trust in our National Leader in times of this and other national crises.

Got Glamour?!

Enter WGA Contest

National Glamour Magazine

Glamour Magazine is a national magazine geared toward the younger generation especially the young ladies. Annually GLAMOUR MAGAZINE search for outstanding college girls who represent the best of each year's changing campus life.

Some of the young ladies on campus felt they passed the qualities that Glamour's editors specified. The girls are selected on the bases of her leadership in two fields: (1) Fashion and grooming and (2) some extracurricular activities on campus or in the community - politics, the arts, social science and social service. This leadership need not necessarily be the result of the highest I.Q. or be backed by the highest grade, anymore that a girl's fashion leadership has to be a matter of a lot of money and security. In both fields GLAMOUR is looking for leadership shown through development of interest and commitment, doing something about one's world and one's appearance.

Never before on this campus has such a contest been carried out. We will have approximately twenty girls participating in the contest, but only one can win. The winner from E.C.S.U. will be competing with girls from all over the country, but only ten of these young ladies will be able to win. The editors of Glamour Magazine will be the judges.

The ten girls who will reap great reward. They will get an all expense paid trip to such places as: New York, London, Rome, Milan and other popular places. They will also be photographed in August issue of Glamour Magazine.

Drug Workshop Approved

According to a letter from Allen W. Rodeheffer, Title I Coordinator, Elizabeth City State University's proposed Community Workshop on Drug Abuse has been approved by the North Carolina Board of Higher Education. As a result of this action, and upon receipt of notice from the U.S. Office of Education, the University will receive $15,000 for funding of the workshop.

STATE RECRUITER PLANS VISIT TO CAMPUS

Seniors interested in employment opportunities in North Carolina State Government will be able to talk with a representative from the State Personnel Department on February 10, 1970. Arrangements for the interview are to be made with the College Placement Office. One should report there to establish a specific appointment on this date.

State Government employs over 39,000 persons in 1,400 different types of jobs. Business, accounting, rehabilitation, social work, laboratory science, education, computer programming, and the natural and physical sciences are only a few of the possible employment areas. Information which fully describes the employment opportunities is available at the Placement Office. In addition, State Government offers its employees a continued education program, excellent possibilities for advancement, paid vacation and holidays, sick leave, and other liberal employee benefits.

"Modern girls adore spinning wheels—four of them and a spare."

Mendenhall, Assistant Director of Development, is designed to provide the community with an informative and educational program to help minimize the seriousness of drug abuse as a health hazard. Participants, who have already shown interest in the planned workshop, will come from Gates, Camden, Perquimans, and Pasquotank counties.

When funds and notice of activation are received, ECSU will then implement a nine-week program. Additional workshops are also planned for the summer. Through lectures, demonstrations, and films, and through use of highly qualified resource personnel, current problems on drug abuse will be dissected and analyzed.
