Following a presentation, last month, by Dr. Eugene Upchurch, curator of education for the North Carolina Museum of Natural History, the Elizabeth City State University Visiting Scientist Series has scheduled two lectures, this month. Sponsored by the biology department, the series has brought to the campus, Dr. Tom E. Smith, who lectures on Thursday, March 7.

Dr. Smith, a native of Georgia who received the PhD degree in biochemistry from Georgetown University, lectured on "Some Aspects of Cellular Physiology," at 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., in the Lester Hall Science Lecture Room. Formerly a junior scientist at the National

A New Day

On occasion of the annual Christian Citizenship Day and Brotherhood Day, Elizabeth City State University was honored to have the Honorable Hobson R. Reynolds, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the world.

The Honorable Reynolds was invited to speak by the United Campus Religious Fellowship on Sunday, January 27. He spoke on the subject "A New Day," and advised all students to keep pushing forward, for success does not come easy. He said that there may be suffering and sacrifice but it is worth it to reach one's goal. Before the program was over, he bestowed upon Dr. Marion D. Thorpe, E.C.S.U.'s Chancellor the honor of being an Elk.

Other platform guests were

Hobson Reynolds

Mr. Alton Dunbar, City Councilman; Mr. Floyd E. Spellman, State Grand Lecturer, Masons; Mr. W.C. Witherspoon, Representing local Elks; Dr. Marion D. Thorpe, University Chancellor; and Miss Edna Hathaway, SGA President.

Be What You Are!!

(Sung to the tune of
M-O-T-H-E-R)

V is for the vital things I hold for thee

I is for the interest I do persist
K is for the Kindness I have in me

I is for the iniquity that does not exist

N is for the notability I give to thee
G is for the greatness of this university

Put them all together and they spell VIKING. That's what I am you see.

Faye Smith

Bible Class

Members of the Elizabeth City State University Student Body felt the need for a Bible class and with the help of the University Minister the class is in session.

The class was started last semester when several students asked Dr. Boone, the University Minister if a Bible class would be formed. Dr. Boone is now the instructor of the class and has twenty-one members. This class meets once a week, on Tuesday nights from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Alma Jenkins is President of the class but in her absences, Vice-President Gerlad Mc Nair is in charge. Faye Smith is secretary.

Hurdle Appointed To Health Manpower Center

Having earlier been designated as one of five Regional Health Manpower Centers, in North Carolina, Chancellor Marion D. Thorpe announces the appointment of Carroll L. Hurdle as director of the Elizabeth City State University Center. Under the state's Health Manpower Program, the center at ECSU will implement the region's health careers recruitment and counseling program.

Hurdle, an alumnus of ECSU, returns to direct the program, after over seven years in the Bertie County Public School system, where he taught at both the Southwestern and Bertie Senior High Schools. A native of Edenton, N.C., he has done further studies at East Carolina University, Hampton Institute, and North Carolina Central University. Married to the former Miss Lelia F. Bazemore, Hurdle has been involved in civic and educational activities as a member of: Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.; the Windsor Elk Lodge, Number 756; the Bertie County Little League Football Association; and of the local, state and national educational associations.

While working closely with Dr. E. Lavonia Allison, Director of the state's Health Manpower Development Program, and Dr.

Jimmy R. Jenkins, Chairman of the nine-member ECSU Health Manpower Advisory Committee, Hurdle will head this region's efforts to recruit and counsel minority and disadvantaged students for health careers. In accepting the position, Hurdle indicated that he liked the challenge which grew out of his awareness and concern over the growing and critical shortages, not only in doctors, but also in the many allied health positions.

Guidance counselors, junior and community college admissions directors, and other interested public school and college personnel can contact Hurdle at the Cardwell-Hoffler Infirmary, on ECSU's campus.

Co-Ed Visitation Rights

Elizabeth City State University students have achieved another goal. They have obtained the right to Coeducational Visitation on a trial basis, approved by The Student Government Association, The Women's Government Association, The Men's Government Association, Student Personnel Services, The Advisory Council and the Board of Trustees. All students must have parental approval before they may participate. The visitation does not apply and is not approved for freshmen.

The visitation right is permitted only in Bulter Hall, Doles Hall, Hugh Cale Hall, New Men's Dormitory and New Women's Dormitory. The program is designed for weekend visitation only during the following hours: Friday, 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.; Saturday, 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, 5:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.

All students and non-students participating must obtain an admission card.

All rules and regulations of the program are printed in a small booklet and must be abided by or proper action will be taken.

Elizabeth City State University students assert coeducational visitation as an asset to present campus living. It is to be an expedient process of establishing living learning centers, improved dormitory conditions and adhere to universe collegiate endeavors.
