who hesitated a second too long.

Although failing to capitalize on this golden opportunity, the Vikings' defense held the Broncos with their backs to the wall, forcing a poor punt. Determined running by freshman Garry Rhoulac, substituting for the injured Jerome Newsome, advanced the ball from the FSU 29 to the six yard line. Jeffrey Jones, the 5-11 sophomore end, Scotland Neck, N. C., who had been making sensational catches all afternoon, made a diving reception across the middle of the end zone. Although the extra point attempt failed and the Vikings' final threat ended on the Visitor's 15 yard line, the Williams to Jones scoring combination was enough to assure victory.

ECSU Loses

During the second half of the game, Hampton managed to score 21 more points while the Vikings failed to score. The Pirates ended the game defeating the Vikings 27-13.

Coach Caldwell and his staff states that "they have already been impressed with the performances of some of the new-comers.
