

They brought it off...Career Day '79 Co-Chairmen, William A. Pierce, ECSU Placement Officer and Co-Chairmen for the University, Mr. Calvin Jones, Director of the Western Electric College Gifts Program and Co-Chairmen for the National Alliance of Business Cluster Program.

The second annual Career Day was sponsored in cooperation with the National Alliance of Business College/Industry Cluster Program.

Both already are at work planning for a Career Awareness Conference, March 31, 1980, co-sponsored by the National Alliance of Business, the National Urban League and our University-Industry Cluster Program.

This event goes a step further than Career Day...Company and agency representatives go into the classrooms during the morning, the Career-O-Rama in Williams Hall Gymnasium follows.

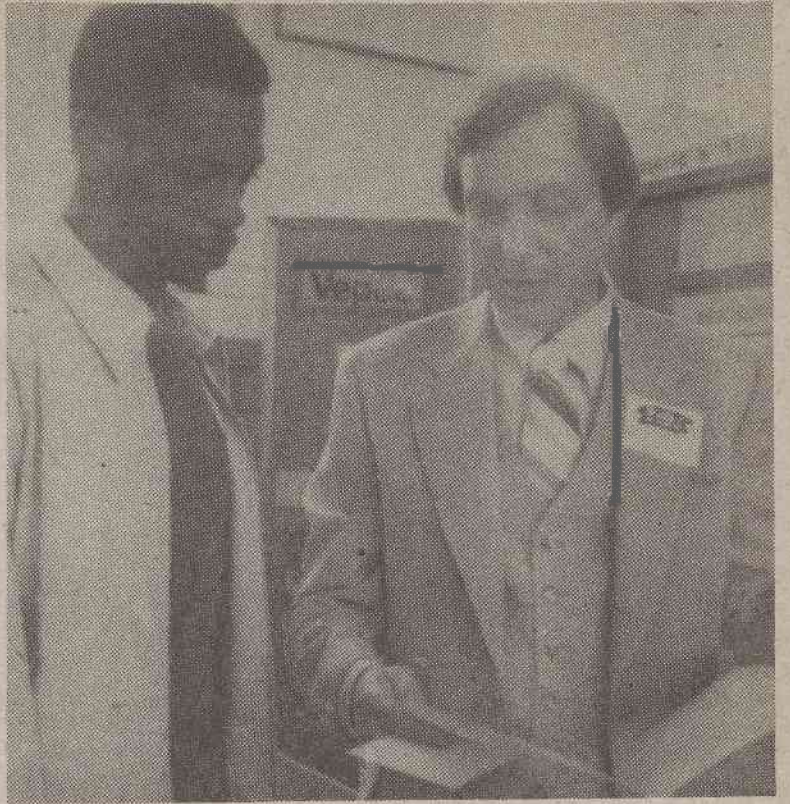

CAREER

DAY '79

There's no doubt about it...ECSU students were tuned in to future possibilities at Career Day '79. Career counselors from participating industry, business and Government had a chance to have their say and student had their chance to listen.

And the word was: We want ECSU students. Then came the urgent invitation. Plan now for the opportunity we can give you.

VEPCO representative Wayne Smith and ECSU student Paul Johnson,

Technology senior discuss career possibilities.

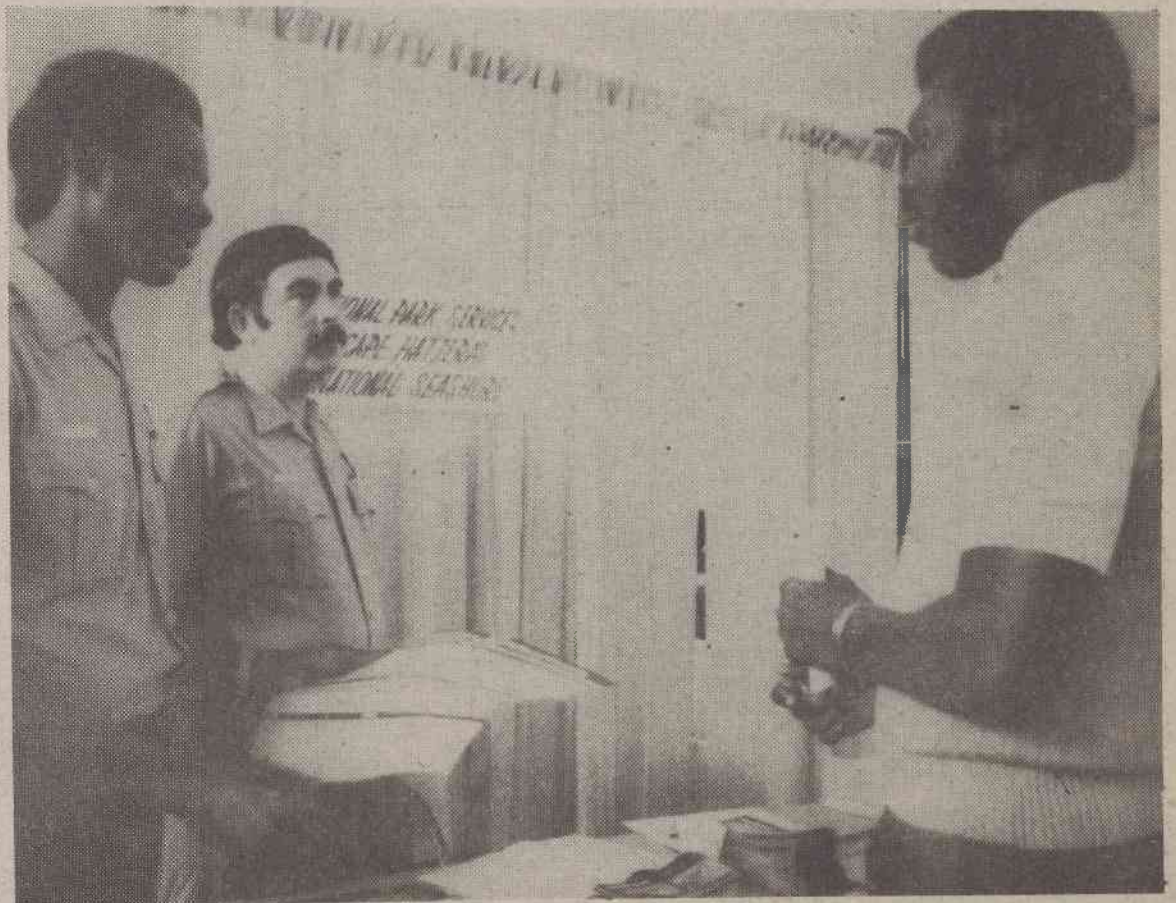

Herbert Jones, Personnel Management representative for the National Institutes of Health, and students l-r,

Jacqueline Bennet and Drucilla Wright scan information on science and business careers.

Mrs. Michaela Ring, freshman at ECSU and Bill Barnes, NOAA cartographer at the Atlantic Marine Center,

Norfolk exchange viewpoints on what NOAA can do for Michaela in her field of study.

National Park Services representatives Zachary Johnson (ECSU '79) and Rod

Danner talk with Anthony Whitehurst, ECSU SGA president. Johnson and Danner are Park Rangers at Cape Hatteras National Seashore.
