

Becky; If beauty were measured in minutes, you would be an hour.
Shawn "GQ" Watson

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity realizes the Valentine's Day is here. We wish that this day is very fruitful of love, happiness and good cheer. Hopefully cupid will shoot his arrow straight. Hopefully this wonderful day you will spend with the one you desire that sets your heart on fire. Yes, the one you consider your special friend. May your cup runneth over with what you are truly worthy of; the affection that is obtained through admiration. That beautiful thing called love. Happy Valentine's Day.

From Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc.

Hope you have the happiest Valentine's Day ever #44 the cupid of my heart.

A Valentine for Barbara

There would always be day when money was easy to come by-- or love--

So we warmed the Swanson Beef Stew

In the sun that danced across the terra cotta sills, and ate with terrifying joy the half-frozen

Peas and carrots and bits of crust

That simmered in our easy fingers--

Expecting-- always-- That the next meal would be the very best

(The piece de resistance, the critics like to say)

Or that money from home would soon arrive,

Somehow dancing too, Or--if not-- perhaps later,

And our toes pierced the thoughtless joy, and made light

Of the world and the terra cotta sills,

While we simmered in the dying sauce of our own making.

Mom and Dad

GREET everyday with thankfulness and share with those you meet the faith, the hope, the peace of mind, that make life seem so sweet.

RECALL the past with happiness rejoicing in the thought of friends well met and deeds well done and joys the years have brought.

LOOK FORWARD, too, with eagerness to pleasures still in store each adding to your memories of the years you've known before.

DO THIS believing fully that your dreams will all come true and this day and every day will be wonderful for you.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY to Sorors and special Friends
