"HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY R.J."

Miriam S.B. Jackson

This message of endearment is but a small token of my appreciation for the many Alumni who have helped and will continue to help me carry on the business of the associaton. It's the little things we do and say that mean so much as we go our way. Happy Valentine's Day.

Darling Tammy, Happy Valentine's Day, though our bodies be distant, our hearts beat as one

All my love, Michael

To Gail, I hope your Valentine's Day will be spent with someone you care about, preferably me!

Sincerely Alvin

To Dr. Maxine Agazie, We love you. Anyi furu gi nanya.
You are special. What's for supper today?

James, Jimmy, Joe, and Ben

To R.H.

Despite all of the things I've said or done to hurt you, I do love you. You've been trying to do things to please me and make me happy and it seems like I've done just the opposite to you. I don't want my actions to push you away from me. From now on I'm going to try to make things better. You mean a lot more to me than you think and now it's time for me to start showing it. Happy Valentine's Day!

Love, A.J.

This Valentine's Day gesture by the Compass is an especially appropriate time for the staff in the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs to share a secret with the student body on how you can steal our hearts:

- 1. Demand excellence in every class.*
- 2. Challenge us to do more in helping you to raise your performance.*
- 3. Prioritize your actions based on the reasons you came to ECSU.*
- 4. Help us to guarantee that you will at least resemble the norm of college graduates nationally.*

BE OUR VALENTINE!!! Dr. Jimmy R. Jenkins

Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Staff
