

Security with a Smile

by Gwen Nixon

"How ya doing today? Can I help you?" And a big, warm smile. Who else but ECSU's friendliest security cop, Franklin Delano Roosevelt Felton. He has been a university employee for twenty-four years, and a member of the campus security force for fifteen years.

During this period he has spread his cheer and concerned attitude throughout the campus. Although his job is to protect the campus, he has taken it upon himself to spread a little of his joy around for all to share. His spirit is infectious; his jokes, smiles, stories and general good cheer have made him quite a popular man at ECSU.

In his spare time, Mr. Felton has demonstrated the true Viking spirit he so nobly personifies by driving the activity bus for the Athletic Department.

Mr. Felton brings joy and laughter to everyone he encounters. His concern for people is well known and he has many friends. He is truly the soul of our University family. He cares for us; but most importantly, he cares about us.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt Felton

Among the principal musical instruments developed in Africa were the xylophone, drum, guitar, zither, harp and flute.

Rumor has it...

that Symera Hall will be opened soon and residents of Butler Hall will move. (Butler is to be renovated next.)

that two transfer students from Livingstone are getting married in May.

that Renee Anderson will make a great candidate for President of The SGA.

that R.J. is running for "Student of the Month."

that Gary Savage is planning to run for Vice-President of SGA.

that all band students will have to take a dancing class.

that Lynnette W. and a former basketball star are getting married.

that English Majors have higher I.Q.'s than any other students on campus.

that no. 22 is the sexiest man on the basketball team.

that the opening football game will be played on the new field. (Maybe) that the band will have a new look next semester.

that Renate's roommate is running for Miss ECSU.

that band scholarships will be given to minorities and they must audition.

that there is really meat in the cafeteria meat loaf.

that there's a Groove in love with a Zeta.

that "Hot Lips" got a nameplate for her Editor's desk.

that "L.B." does not have to drive ALL the way home in the fog.

that "Big O" has lost his shadow- and it is not "Little Z."

that "R.B." has a secret "Pooh-Bear."

that "D.B." is getting old.

that Jay and Sheila are Siamese twins joined at the elbow.

that Tammy A. and Donald are tying the knot.

TROOPER POSITIONS

The North Carolina Highway Patrol offers a career opportunity to qualified persons seeking employment in public service--a career dedicated to the "Law Enforcement Code of Ethics." The Patrol is an equal opportunity employer seeking qualified applicants for trooper positions, with emphasis on minorities and females. Qualifications include a high school education or G.E.D. certificate, excellent physical condition, good character and reputation, good driving and criminal record, a score of "H" on the Occupational Aptitude Test, successfully passing an agility test, and other job related requirements. Successful applicants must complete a 24-week basic training course prior to taking the Oath-of-Office. If you are seriously interested in pursuing a career as a State Trooper, contact the nearest Highway Patrol Office or telephone (919) 733-7952 in Raleigh for further information. (Excellent salaries and fringe benefits; advancement opportunities and promotion; military leave; provisions for retirement; Workmen's Compensation; sick leave and annual leave policy; holidays; specialized training)

NORTH CAROLINA

HIGHWAY PATROL

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER