

A Christmas Greeting to the University Family

Christmas is a time to give gifts and to give thanks for that most precious gift of all.

We ask all of you to search your hearts for that most precious gift to give; and to reflect deeply on that special gift already given to mankind.

With both considerations, Elizabeth City State University will truly be that beacon of light and hope for those who still walk in darkness.

Dr. & Mrs. Jimmy R. Jenkins & Family

To James Monroe,
We have a long way to go and a short time to get there. The Christmas Holiday should be the solution. I Love You, Merry Christmas.
