

PEOPLE

Virginia Perrimon (right), ECSU class of 1949 and vice-president of the General Alumni Association, presented her copy of the 1949 Viking Yearbook to The Office of Institutional Research and Archives. The achives was missing the 1949 Viking edition. Accepting on behalf of ECSU were Leonard Ballou (center), Director of Institutional Research and Archives and Marian Mitchell (left), Director of Alumni Affairs.

Steven Walker, senior music industry major from Fairmont, N.C., was awarded a $1000 scholarship and internship. Walker will be doing his internship this spring at the Ludwig Industries, Inc., a division of the Selmer Company, Monroe, N.C. Walker, an honor student, is a member of the ECSU marching band, concert band, and Mr. "M" and the organization. He is secretary of the Music Industry Association and was the recipient of the National Association of Music Merchants scholarship for Fall 1986.

Photo by Kevin Cox
Steven Walker is congratulated by Dr. Willie Sullivan, Chairman of ECSU Music Department.

HOMECOMING

'86

The 1986 Homecoming schedule included a Homecoming Parade and Ballgames. There was also a toga party, donkey basketball game, wheelbarrow race, cookie eating contest, talent show, concert and dance.

In the 1984-85 football season, the ECSU Vikings were using the slogan "Homecoming Busters" when they played on homecoming day. This slogan would have been appropriate for the Broncos of Fayetteville State University as they rolled into Vikingland and spoiled the Vikings homecoming 23-20. The loss was the Vikings fifth of the season.

In the first half the Vikings took advantage of some scoring opportunities. Their first score came on a two-yard run by junior running back Tyrone Lane. Minutes later, the Vikings scored again as quarterback Bill Wilde hit sophomore wide receiver Robert Tiller in the end zone. The extra point was blocked, giving the Vikings a 13-0 lead.

The Vikings seemed headed for victory, but the Broncos answered with two touchdowns to take the lead 14-13. The Broncos added a field goal late in the half for a 17-13 half time lead.

In the second half, Alvin Smith, ECSU's leading rusher, took a handoff from Bill Wilde and rumbled 20 yards for the score, bringing the Vikings to within three at 23-20. The Vikings had a last ditch effort snubbed when the Broncos intercepted a Wilde pass with 52 seconds remaining, sealing the 23-20 victory that spoiled the Vikings homecoming spirit.

