

News Briefs

continued from page 3

Center. Guest speaker was Harvey Gantt, a Charlotte architect and political leader. Gant's architectural firm, which designed ECSU's Science Complex and the Marion D. Thorpe Administration Building, has grown to become one of the outstanding design firms in the Southeast. The Gala affair began with a reception at 6 p.m. followed by dinner and a dance.

The University hosted a memorial march in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on Monday, January 20. Participants from the community and the University assembled in front of the G.R. Little Library and marched to city hall.

Following the march, there was an assembly at 2 p.m. in Moore Hall Auditorium. Guest speaker was Reverend William Barber, pastor of Fayette Street Christian Church, Disciples of Christ from Martinsville, Virginia.

ECSU held its annual Black History Month Program assembly on Wednesday, February 12 at 2 p.m. in Moore Hall Auditorium. The guest speaker was Congressman Edolphus Towns, 11th Congressional District of Brooklyn, New York. Towns, a native of Chadbourn, N.C. is a member of the Energy & Commerce Committee, the Government Operations Committee, and the Select committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control. He is serving as Chairman of the Congressional Black Caucus for the 102nd Congress. Other Black History Month Activities included "Beyond The Dream IV" shown via satellite in Johnson Hall, Wednesday, February 5 at 1 p.m., the Evelyn A. Johnson African-American Choral Music Festival, held Sunday, February 9 in the K.E. White Graduate and Continuing Educational Center, and the 1st Annual NAACP African Tribute sponsored by the Elizabeth City Chapter of NAACP Wednesday, held February 12 in Moore Hall Auditorium. The Fifth Annual Colloquium was held on Tuesday, February 18th in Lester Hall. Guest speaker was Mr. Robert Willis, Professor of Computer Science at Hampton University.

The University Players will present Bus Stop, a romantic comedy by William Inge, February 19-23, at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre. The price of admission will be $3.50 for the public, $1.50 for faculty, and $1 for students. Tickets will be available at the door. For more information call 335-3436.

"From distant light to shining star"

University Graphics, now in its 10th year, salutes ECSU for 100 years of achievement, struggle and excellence.

Congratulations and best wishes to all members of the University Family

Dianne Patterson
Director and founder, University Graphics

Automatic Transmission Repair

Domestic & Foreign

Transmissions Are Our
Only Business

After We're Through, They Run Like New

C.W. Transmission Repair

Quality
Work At Fair Prices

335-1309

FREE
ROAD TEST

Call For Appointment
ELIZABETH CITY

COASTAL

F
F
I
C

EQUIPMENT CO.

Assorted selection of briefcases
reg. on sale

$49.95 $34.96

Summit
reg. on sale

$54.95 $38.39

Attention: Faculty & students 15% discount on all applicable items

335-2927

FAX 919-331-2927
1121 W. Main St.
Elizabeth City

5¢

copies

Limit 50 per customer
Valid with coupon